Yanks Using Okinawa as Base For Attacks on Jap Homeland

By WILLIAM F. TYREE
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

GUAM, May 22.—(BUP)—Reinforced American troops on Okinawa besieged the fortress city of Shuri today and threatened to outflank Yonaburu in a new drive.

Vice-Admiral Richmond Kelly Turner, commander of U.S. Amphibious forces for the Ryukyu invasion operation, predicted Okinawa will be captured in the "comparatively near future." He disclosed Okinawa already was being used as the base for "important attacks" against Japan.

"Every day, at this early stage, we have airplanes from Okinawa over Japan," said Admiral Turner. "Think what it will be like a month from now."

PIERCE FORTIFICATIONS

In a wide semi-circle, the Americans slid around Shuri along a line approximately 800 to 1,100 yards from the centre of the town. Shuri's main fortifications were pierced in some of the fiercest fighting of the Pacific war.

Patrols were disclosed to have penetrated through Yonaburu.

King Declares:

Liberal Policy To Aid Change War to Peace

SHELLBROOK, Sask., May 22.—(CP)—Family allowances and other measures for the distribution of purchasing power already begun will facilitate transition from war to peace, Prime Minister Mackenzie King said in a speech here last night.

"We would have the start of a depression on our hands today if we had not taken these steps," he said.

It was Mr. King's second public speech in his own constituency. In the afternoon he visited a school and spoke to the children.

He recalled this when he said he was fonder of the family allowance law than anything else he had been able to accomplish.

GREATER OPPORTUNITIES

It would mean greater opportunities for every child here and throughout Canada. Had his own parents not made sacrifices and not been restricted as they had he would not have had the same opportunities.

Mr. King said that taking Canada into war a united nation and preserving its unity during six years of war had been one of the great achievements of history.

"We have made mistakes," he said. "We have not pleased every-

50,000 Fliers May Serve in Pacific

By JOHN S. CONNOLLEY
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

OTTAWA, May 22.—(BUP)—Canada's air contribution to the Pacific war may equal or even exceed in numbers of men the total of some 42,500 sailors and soldiers already announced for the Canadian navy and army Pacific forces, it was speculated here today.

Recalling Prime Minister Mackenzie King's statement in Edmonton last Friday that the air contribution "will not be disproportionate to that of the other two services," well-placed sources argued that Canadian airmen will be much in demand for the Japanese war, particularly because, unlike the soldiers, they do not require lengthy retraining and because there are plenty of planes and other air equipment available.

Estimates as to the number of Canadian airmen who may be sent to the Pacific range as high as 50,000 at a ration of four ground personnel to one aircrew.

Willow Run Plant Ahead of Schedule

DETROIT, May 22.—(AP)—The big Willow Run bomber plant, soon to complete its production of four-engined Liberator bombers, is 20 months ahead of schedule, and is turning out one complete plant every 55 minutes of working time, the Ford Motor Company announced today. The plant's production total passed the 8,500 mark last week.

Blackmore Says:

S.C. Party View Foreign Trade Misrepresented

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., May 22.—(CP)—J. H. Blackmore, Social Credit leader in the House of Commons, said in an interview here yesterday that Prime Minister King in his campaign address at Edmonton last Friday had "left a completely wrong impression of the Social Credit stand on foreign trade and on participation in the world organization to ensure peace."

In his address, Mr. King said that Social Credit members of parliament have "consistently ignored—I might go so far as to say they have denied — the vital necessity of external trade to the prosperity and welfare of Canada." The prime minister also said SC members voted for participation in the last Parliament for Edmonton East.

Ald. Sidney Parsons, president of the Trades Council, and delegates he had visited the Wartime Housing project with Mr. MacKinnon and Mrs. Casselman Monday afternoon.

He said that the present type of construction was considered, and the changes necessary to make full basements and chimneys that conformed to the city's building by-laws were shown to them. He was confident that action would be taken to have these homes conform to the general requirements of the city's by-laws, and also as to full basements, an absolute essential for homes in this province.

It was intimated that the Rehabilitation council had agreed to the trades council suggestion that three members from the labor body should sit on the rehabilitation council.

Edmonton Airmen With Repatriates

NEW YORK, May 22.—(CP)—The largest draft of repatriated RCAF personnel—1,546 officers and men—has arrived from the United Kingdom and will be mostly for Lachine, Que., and then their homes.

CCF Supporters Said Unaware Of Party Plans

NEEPAWA, Man., May 22.—(CP)—John Bracken, National Progressive Conservative leader, said last night he was confident that if electors were fully aware of the extent to which those at the top of the CCF Party would interfere with individual freedom they would withdraw their support from that party.

In a speech at a political rally here, principal town in the constituency, where Mr. Bracken is standing for election, he said that he did not question the sincerity of those who supported the CCF Party.

"During the dark thirties, when it appeared that the government was unable to bring the people out of the depression, some turned to that which offered promise of escape from very dark days—even though it was a promise on paper only," said Mr. Bracken.

"I am confident that they are not fully aware of the extent to which those at the top of the CCF would interfere with individual freedom."

Voice Opposition To Wartime Homes

Delegates to the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council meeting Monday night expressed alarm that officials of Wartime Housing Ltd. had not seen fit to place full basements under homes being built here, and also had ignored repeated requests that regulation, instead of brick chimneys, be used.

A resolution to this effect was passed by the delegates and the executive of the council was instructed to forward to Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction, a copy of the resolution. Copies will be sent also to Hon. James A. MacKinnon, minister of trade and commerce, and to Mrs. Cora T. Casselman, Liberal member in the last Parliament for Edmonton East.

INCREASE BUYING POWER

Mr. Blackmore also stated: "Social Creditors have consistently advocated such an increase in internal purchasing as would enable Canadians to buy and consume their own production. Such an increase in purchasing power would enable Canadians to buy the foreign goods for which their surplus production might be traded. This would result in greater trade than could be possible under any other economic system.

"On March 23 on the floor of the House of Commons I used the following words: 'The Social Credit movement will give its full support to the establishment of a world peace organization.'"

The questions which Social Creditors insisted on were such as would remove the causes of war by rendering international trade cooperative and mutually beneficial rather than competitive and provocative of hot commercial rivalry which must inevitably lead to war."

Million-Dollar Scheme

City Council Explores Plan Utilize North Housing Units

A building project involving approximately $1,000,000 designed to provide low-rental housing accommodation for servicemen and their dependents is under consideration by the provincial government and The City of Edmonton.

Details of the project were submitted by George A. Clash, provincial government marketing board chairman, to members of the city council Monday afternoon.

Council instructed city commissioners to negotiate with the provincial government an agreement, to be submitted to city council for ratification, for the moving of 100 huts from Dawson Creek, B.C., the province to finance the whole initial outlay at a reasonable rate of interest, and to accept some responsibility in any ultimate loss resulting from the project.

The city would erect the homes on designated sites here, and the province would be responsible for the moving of the huts from Dawson Creek to the city.

Victoria Cross is Awarded To Two Gallant Canadians

OTTAWA, May 22.—(CP)—The coveted Victoria Cross has been awarded to Maj. Frederick Albert Tilston, 39, of Windsor, Ont., and Toronto, who lost his legs, and to Sgt. Aubrey Cosens, 24, of Latchford, Ont., who lost his life—both in German and Netherlands actions this spring.

The awards—ninth and 10th VC's to Canadians in this war—were announced today by Defence Minister McNaughton. They are the First Great War 60 Canadians won VC's.

Maj. Tilston, Essex Scottish Regiment company commander and peacetime pharmacist, lost his legs shortly after a gallant action in the Hochwald forest of Germany March 1, in which he was wounded three times and which led to his award.

Sgt. Cosens, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada platoon commander and peacetime northern Ontario railwayman, was killed by a sniper's bullet in which he won his VC.

Maj. Tilston, who had survived the removal of a rifle bullet from his heart at an English training ground in 1942, and a wound when his jeep struck a mine near Falaise, France, last October, won the Empire's highest award for continuing to lead his com-

Doenitz, Leaders May Be Indicted

PARIS, May 22.—(BUP)—Admiral Karl Doenitz, Marshal Wilhelm Keitel and other German leaders at Flensburg are expected to be returned to civilian life within a few days to face possible indictment as war criminals, a source associated with supreme headquarters said today.

Reports of the impending dissolution of the German general staff at Flensburg lacked official confirmation. Shaef public relations men repeatedly have tended to become secretive on the eve of important politico-military developments.

A small group of correspondents left today to cover a story which, in the words of an official source, "Shaef think you will be interested in."

The destination of the party was not known definitely. The general impression prevailed in the Shaef newsroom that they were headed for Flensburg.

Churchill Plans New Government

By C. T. HALLINAN
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

LONDON, May 22.—(BUP)—Prime Minister Churchill today was organizing an interim government which was expected to replace his coalition cabinet within a few days and rule Britain until the general election early in July.

Churchill was expected to ask King George within two or three days to dissolve parliament and thus set in motion the machinery for the country's first general election since 1935.

The break-up of the coalition government, formalized by the Labor Party's rejection of Churchill's proposal yesterday to carry on until Japan is defeated, cleared the way for the general election.

The next move in the complicated jockeying for election position lay with Churchill. Before asking for the formal dissolution of parliament, he might ask his labor ministers to turn in their seals of office.

LONDON, May 22.—(CP)—Prime Minister Churchill today virtually assured a summer general election for Britain in a letter to Clement Attlee rejecting the Labor Party's suggestion that the balloting be delayed until fall.

Reveal That Eire Feared Invasion

LONDON, May 22.—(Reuters)—Thousands of troops were rushed by Eire to the Ulster border in anticipation of a possible invasion following the British and United States government notes to the Eire government Feb. 21, 1944, requesting expulsion of the German and Japanese ministers, an Evening Standard writer said yesterday. Quoting the Standard's Dublin reporter, "The Diarist" reported that the next three weeks saw the greatest tension Eire experienced throughout the war.

Unmanned Craft Carry Bombs To Isolated Western Localities

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(BUP)—Japan for several months has been attacking the western United States with long-range balloon-borne bombs which thus far have caused "no property damage," the war and navy departments revealed jointly today.

They called the Japanese attempt "fantastic" and said the attacks "constitute no military threat." (Some of the bombs have landed in Canada.)

"During the past several months, Japanese freed balloons are known to have landed or dropped explosives in isolated localities," the announcement said.

These balloons cannot be controlled by their launchers, the war department said, and the chances that any given place would be hit by these attacks is only one in many millions.

This Japanese attempt to undertake against the United States attacks which the Germans launched with infinitely greater success against Great Britain was handicapped so greatly by distance that it has been able to cause no damage to property, the war department said.

Big Business Plans Closing Of War Plants

VICTORIA, May 22.—(CP)—"Big business" is planning to shut down most of the giant war plants which have passed into its control, M. J. Coldwell, national leader of the CCF, said here last night.

In an address at his first public meeting in the federal election campaign, Mr. Coldwell declared that unless effective means are taken to prevent this ruinous policy, there will be a "short, feverish boom and then depression."

"What the present government builds employment castles in the air," the CCF leaders said, "big business is quietly going ahead with plans to lay off tens of thousands of war workers."

Mr. Coldwell outlined a broad social and economic plan which he said the CCF would inaugurate if chosen June 11 to form the next Canadian government. The plan included:

HOUSING PROJECT

1. Construction of 1,000,000 modern, low-cost homes over a 10-year period.

2. Efforts to provide 5,000,000 "paying and useful jobs".

3. Measures to guarantee full pro-

Meet No Opposition

Allies Move Into Disputed Territory

From CP, AP and BUP Dispatches

HEADQUARTERS, MEF, May 22.—More than three hours after Eighth Army troops, both British and American, moved east and north to the Yugoslav border to take over positions inside the disputed Venezia Giulia province, no untoward incidents had been reported. The Allied forces are moving through territory occupied by the Yugoslav partisans of Marshal Tito.

Yugoslav troops were offering no opposition but one American was wounded when he stepped on a mine near a roadblock. The mine is believed to have been laid by Germans.

The move, ordered by Field Marshal Alexander after Marshal Tito had moved some troops from the Istrian province of Carinthia, but refused to evacuate the Italian province of Venezia Giulia, will give the Allied troops commanding hill positions in the area in the event of of any untoward happenings.

Field Marshal Sir Harold R. L. G. Alexander, Allied Mediterranean commander, left for Trieste today with Maj.-Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther chief of the U.S. Fifth Army staff to direct personal charge of the delicate situation, as Allied trucks, tanks and armored cars moved into the disputed Venezia area.

CCF Candidate

Reinforcement Charges Hurled By Army Padre

WINNIPEG, May 22.—(CP)—Maj. E. J. Bailey, CCF candidate in Lisgar federal constituency and recently a chaplain with The Loyal Edmonton Regiment overseas, said in a broadcast last night that "I am charging the government with meditated failure to support the fighting troops over a long period."

Maj. Bailey said he was keeping a promise made to the men at the front to tell the people "the truth" about the reinforcement situation.

The first hint men overseas got of possible reinforcement difficulties was nearly three years ago, Chaplains had to deal with compassionate leave cases, Major Bailey said. "We found it was impossible. We only found out in March, 1944, at a meeting with the general in Italy that the government had laid it down as a policy that only business men with economic reasons could get back.

Pass Canadian Amendment At San Francisco Parley

By C. R. BLACKBURN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—(CP)—A Canadian amendment calling for a rotating system of membership on the economic and social council of the proposed world organization for peace was adopted yesterday in a United Nations Security Conference committee.

Under the Dumbarton Oaks agreement the 18 members of the council would be elected for three-year terms. The Canadian amendment, sponsored by Gordon Graydon, provided that the first council would be elected as follows: six for one-year terms, six for two-year terms and six for three-year terms.

Thereafter elections will be for three-year terms. This provides for the continuity of experienced representatives of the council instead of having a completely new slate of member nations each year. The amendment was approved unanimously.

There was discussion on another Canadian amendment which would instruct the general assembly to give consideration to the necessity of representation by states of major economic importance.

HOLLYWOOD, May 22.—So Gary Cooper has been given an honorary degree by his old college back in Iowa. Well, there's no cause for him to get fat. I've been honored by the place where I spent my school days, too. In fact, only last year the Cleveland Billiard Academy made me Honorary Professor of Rotation and Eighball Insertion. Ah, the old school days . . . my Latin teacher was my favorite. . . I learned a lot from her. In fact, we perfected the first rhumba to come out of Latin America. Then my brother told me that if I left school for good, he'd show me how to make money . . . so for two years I cut the green grass up into bill size while he did the pitching. A correspondence school was my next whirl at learning. I'll never forget in my freshman year when the sophomores mailed me a ball bat and told me to haze myself. And I thought I'd be able to skip the truant officer by going to school by mail. Egad, did I get a shock that morning when the postman walked in and yanked me out of the bowling alley. The newspaper report said Gary Cooper got his degree in fine arts . . . well, he's been working in Hollywood now for 10 years . . . and if you don't think that's a fine art, try it some time.

duction on the farms and "adequate diets in the towns and cities".

4. "A vast extension" of public health services, medical training and research and construction of hospitals and clinics aimed at prevention of sickness and medical care for all regardless of ability to pay;

5. Provision of grants to assist in construction of modern educational facilities in town and country and to construct community centres for the arts, crafts, music, the drama, adult education and recreation;

6. A war memorial program in the form of national cultural and recreational buildings including a national library and national theatres.

SEEK END POVERTY

"We seek to end the spectre of poverty and the tyranny of corporate and financial power," Mr. Coldwell asserted.

Contending that "a million homes will be invaded by poverty, sickness and despair," unless effective steps are taken to prevent the plans of "big business" to decrease employment, he said the CCF plans to provide 5,000,000 jobs in Canada.

"But there will be no 5,000,000 jobs unless we as a nation undertake great social projects, including power development, irrigation, conservation of resources and the opening of the rich northland."

INCREASED FARM PRODUCTION

Farmers would be asked to produce much larger quantities of foodstuffs to provide adequate diets for Canadians and of meet expanding export requirements.

A CCF government would base its health program on a recognition that the roots of good health are to be found in good food, good homes, good education and recreation.

"Free enterprise condemns men and women to crowded tenements, rooming houses and unfair rents," Mr. Coldwell said, adding the CCF policy would be to undertake a construction program with the energy and determination that have gone into the production of tanks and aircraft during the war.

"The Liberal Party now is busily taking credit for what is an inevitable and inadequate post-war building boom, but such a boom cannot begin to meet the housing needs of our people," he said.

Mr. Coldwell contended that the Dominion's resettlement in 1919 was not find $500,000 to deal with unemployment but during the war some of the former jobless were given individually the job of flying planes which cost $500,000 each. He added that the training of each of these airmen cost $50,000.

TELLS OF EXPULSION

Referring to the expulsion of H. W. Herridge from the CCF, Mr. Coldwell said, "I do not propose that the constituency in Canada will inflict on the CCF any man we cannot trust because he is co-operating with another party."

Mr. Herridge was expelled by the British Columbia CCF provincial executive for accepting a nomination in Kootenay West for the June 11 federal general elections while he was still a CCF member of the provincial legislature for Kootenay-East. The executive said the party policy forbids an MLA from resigning to accept a federal nomination."

He added the rank and file of the CCF had laid down the principle that a member of CCF should be "true and faithful" to the CCF and should not co-operate with any other party and particularly not with a "party whose whole basis is that democracy must be destroyed" and such a policy was advocated by the Labor Progressive party, "the former communists."

towns in the disputed area, but are apparently not in the countryside districts which they have left unguarded.

GET KEY POSITIONS

Today's move by the Allied forces will give the British and American troops possession of a number of high peaks and other key positions it will be necessary to hold should the position get worse and the Yugoslav forces resort to force to maintain their position.

It is estimated that there are 60,000 Yugoslav troops in the disputed Trieste-Gorizia area.

Tito has already withdrawn his troops from the disputed province of Austrian Carinthia, but in the Italian province of Venezia Giulia he has refused to withdraw, although the agreement among the Allies is that the province should be administered by the British and American military government officials until its final status is determined at the peace conference.

The province was awarded to Italy after the last war, but is now claimed by Yugoslavia.

Today the situation is packed with dynamite. Allied commanders have orders to use diplomacy and friendship should they encounter Yugoslav troops during their march into the territory. As far as possible a policy of peaceful penetration will be followed, but in Trieste and elsewhere in the province the situation is tense, and it is realized that almost anything might happen.

UP TO YUGOSLAVS

In any event it will be the Yugoslav forces who will precipitate any trouble should trouble arise, as the western Allies are determined not to open hostilities despite their insistence that Marshal Tito withdraw his forces.

The withdrawal of Yugoslav troops from Austrian Carinthia has eased the transportation situation between Trieste and Allied occupation troops in Austria considerably, and British, American and New Zealand troops are still operating the port of Trieste and patrolling the streets around the dock area.

Diplomatic observers are hoping that Tito will accept the offer of the Allies and withdraw, and there are indications that he may have been advised by Russia that his present stand is provocative and a suggestion that he should change it. It is possible that the matter of the occupation may be settled through diplomatic channels rather than by direct talks with Field Marshal Alexander.

EXERCISE RESTRAINT

In any event the occupation of the disputed territory by Allied forces will be carried out, and it is hoped that there will be no clashes between the Allied and Yugoslav forces. Both sides are exercising considerable restraint and endeavoring to arrive at a solution by peaceful means, but it is realized that the situation is packed with dynamite.

drift with wind currents toward this continent.

"These balloons are grey, white or greenish-blue paper, about 33 feet in diameter," the war department said. "They carry a few small bombs suspended beneath the balloon. It is believed that the main purpose of the bombs is to set brush and forest fires. There are dangerous and should not be touched by anyone not familiar with bombs."

The war department said that thus far the bombs had not succeeded in their apparent purpose of starting forest fires.

The balloons, it was said, have landed or dropped their explosives from time to time in isolated areas, mostly in the mountains, forest or deserts.

NO ENEMY PERSONNEL

There is no indication that any of them ever carried enemy personnel.

The armed services decided to reveal the nature of the attacks to forewarn civilians against possible damage and personal injury. It was held that the possible saving of even one American life by publishing the warning would more than offset any military gain to the enemy from the mere knowledge that some balloons actually had landed explosives in this country.

The services warned, however, that it would aid the Japanese if they should learn exact information as to the time, locality and effect of any specific incident, or the number of balloons which have landed or been sighted.

This would permit the enemy to evaluate results and possibly to correct methods.

The army and navy paid tribute to newspaper and radio stations for withholding facts about the bombs which have become known from time to time.

OTTAWA ANNOUNCES EXPLOSIVES DROPPED

OTTAWA, May 22—(CP)—Defence headquarters announced today that unmanned Japanese balloons have dropped explosives in isolated localities "on the western part of the North American mainland" and unexploded bombs may still be lying in isolated spots.

For security reasons the story of the balloons has been under censorship for several months and defence headquarters asked that newspapers and broadcasters continue the co-operation. The statement said:

TAKE PRECAUTIONS

"In any case of casualty, it will serve the national interest if the press and radio and all civilians will refrain from connecting such casualty with enemy action".

However, there is a possibility that the unexploded bombs dropped with the expended balloons, may be found lying in isolated spots or concealed in wooded areas.

"Some may be buried beneath melting snow," said the statement. "With the coming of warm weather and the end of the school season, it is desirable that people, and especially children, living west of the Great Lakes be warned of this possible hazard and cautioned under no circumstances to touch or approach any unfamiliar object."

Few details were given of the balloon operations described as "sporadic Japanese long-range balloon attacks . . . during the last several months."

The statement said the balloons were carried by wind currents from Japan.

British United Press war correspondent Ernest Thomas said the patrols reconnoitered Yonabaru and later withdrew.

Major-Gen. Roy S. Geiger, commanding a marine amphibious Corps on Okinawa, said his men were "making good progress." He acknowledged, however, that the Japanese artillery on Okinawa was "the most effective we have run into in the Pacific."

NO PREDICTIONS

He declined to make a definite prediction as to when the Shuri defence zone would be broken. But he said any withdrawal from Shuri would force the Japanese to take up positions strung out over a longer line.

The Japanese defenders, believed the bulk of possibly 35,000 enemy troops in the southern tip of the island, were finding their hillsides and caves until slain by bayonets, grenades or flaming streams of oil released from above.

JAPS ATTACK FLEET

At sea, the Japanese renewed their air attacks on the American fleet off Okinawa. Thirty-five planes attacked at low level Sunday night and damaged five light warships, but 26 of the raiders were shot down.

Infantrymen of the 77th Division north of Shuri toppled one of the citadel's main fortifications in a surprise attack early Monday.

Plunging forward under cover of darkness, the soldiers overwhelmed and occupied the fortified town of Taira-Machi, beat off a counter-attack next morning and drove on to the south in the face of almost point blank machine gun and small arms fire.

POISED FOR LUNGE

The 96th Infantry Division outflanked Shuri from the east and was poised for a lunge westward to join up with the First Marine Division south of Shuri.

A juncture of the two divisions would encircle Shuri, second largest city on Okinawa, and trap its garrison.

While some units of the 96th Division threatened Shuri from the east, others opened a power drive eastward to the coast, cutting off the port of Yonabaru in the face of intense interlocking machine gun fire from the surrounding heights.

Patrols reported Yonabaru itself had been partly evacuated but it was possible the defenders had gone underground and were awaiting an infantry counter-attack in force to loose their fire.

Sixth Division Marines at the western end of the cross-island line strengthened their positions in the northern portion of Naha and struck south from Sugar Loaf Hill to the northeast.

Sugar Loaf Hill was reported officially secure after it had changed hands 11 times in heavy fighting.

MANILA, May 22—(BUP)—Thirty First Division troops closed in today on Malaybalay, agricultural centre of middle Mindanao, after a driving 10 miles to the town's outskirts.

A communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported the 31st had reached the edge of the airfield at Malaybalay, and were within a mile of the town itself, capital of Bukidnon province.

In six days the 31st had driven 30 miles through rugged hilly country and there was no indication its speedy advance would be checked at Malaybalay.

AGAIN ON MOVE

Only 25 miles to the north along the Sayre highway, the 40th and American divisions were on the move again after being held for a time by stubborn resistance. They gained four miles to reach the village of Maluko.

The 24th Division around Davao completed clearing the ground around Sasa airfield, and advanced two miles north of Panacan village on Davao gulf against only light opposition.

Japanese resistance on Mindanao appeared completely broken, except in the hilly country in the path of the 40th and American Divisions, where the islands last defenders were trapped.

On Luzon, in the Ipo Dam sector, the 43rd Division eliminated the last Japanese pockets south of the Ipo-Angat highway, sanding north from the Milna suburb of Novaliches to Ipo. More than 400 caves in which Japanese were hiding were cleared.

It was announced here that the Australian Sixth Division has captured Wewak airfield on the northern coast of New Guinea, held by the Japanese since the early days of the war.

McNaughton Left Command of Army Over "Principles"

BROADVIEW, Sask., May 22—(CP)—Defence Minister McNaughton said at a public meeting last night he left the Canadian Army command overseas because of a decision which would have run counter to principles he held as the man responsible for the safety of the lives of men.

Gen. McNaughton was replying to a questioner. He did not amplify his statement.

He said he saw two dangerous forces ahead for Canada—one, the socialism of the CCF, and the other the reactionaries of the Progressive Conservative party. He said he was more anxious about the latter.

Death Still Stalks Dachau

By MALCOLM MUIR, Jr.
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

DACHAU, Austria, May 22.—(BUP)—Death still stalked Dachau today, 25 days after its liberation.

For the inmates of this notorious concentration camp, liberation has meant little. From 60 to 100 men are still dying daily. Another 3,000 are almost hopeless cases. The corpses left by the Nazis have been cleaned away, but their places have been taken by new rows of bodies.

Typhus, typhoid, dysentry and the effects of a starvation diet are taking their toll. The camp's new chief doctor, Frankiche Flaha, estimated today that up to 3,000 of the prisoners here are still close to the danger point.

Twenty-four hours a day smoke curls from the stubby cremation chimneys, but the furnaces cannot keep pace with their grim task.

Say France Faces Nationwide Strike

PARIS, May 22—(AP)—Rumors that French labor leaders are planning a national general strike circulated through financial and industrial circles yesterday and the belief was expressed that the country is approaching a crisis in internal affairs.

Officials of the central committee of labor unions said important conferences were held during the week-end but denied general strikes were imminent.

U.K. Labor Party Plans For Election

By JON KIMCHE

BLACKPOOL, England, May 22.—(Reuters)—Home Secretary Herbert Morrison launched the Labor party's 1945 election campaign today before an enthusiastic conference.

He said Labor's "five-year plan" would be based on control of banking and finance and the first industries to come into public ownership—inland transport, iron and steel. Labor would supervise monopolies and cartels and would maintain "suitable" economic and price control.

Lord Strabolgi, Labor Peer, said the Conservative majority in the House of Lords would make trouble for any Labor government which might be formed after the coming election.

He pleaded with the conference to counteract anti-Soviet propaganda which, he said, was on the increase in certain sections of the Conservative party.

Australia Plans Child Migration

LONDON, May 22—(Reuters)—Australia is to send a special commission to Britain to select children, with or without parents, to be admitted to the Commonwealth under a child migration scheme, the Evening News reported yesterday. East Miners Want Two-Week Holiday

OTTAWA, May 22 — (CP) — A special Industrial Disputes Commission appointed to deal with wage demands of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick coal miners yesterday heard representations from the United Mine Workers (CCL) for an extension of the present paid vacation plan from one to two weeks.

J. L. Cohen of Toronto, union counsel, based his argument largely on a comparison with the conditions prevailing for Alberta and British Columbia miners where a two-weeks vacation plan is in effect.

War Controls To Be Lifted On Set Plan

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., May 22.—(CP)—Relaxation of wartime controls in Canada and the United States is to be co-ordinated as closely as possible, Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced in a statement issued here last night.

The plan for continued co-ordination also will cover priorities in the reconversion period from war to peace production, Mr. King said in a press statement. In effect the announcement continues into the immediate period the close tie-up between Canada and the United States industrial control which has been in effect during the earlier stages of the war.

"Both governments will consider and deal with the problems of the transition period from war to peace in the same spirit that was manifested in the Hyde Park declaration," Mr. King said.

HYDE PARK PLAN

(At Hyde Park, April 20, 1941, Prime Minister King and President Roosevelt agreed that in mobilizing the resources of the continent "each country should provide the other with the defence articles which it is best able to produce . . . and that production programs should be co-ordinated to this end.")

"A primary purpose of the arrangement is to minimize for both countries the difficulties of the pressing problems inherent in the reconversion of industry to the utmost extent compatible with the vigorous prosecution of the war against Japan," said Mr. King.

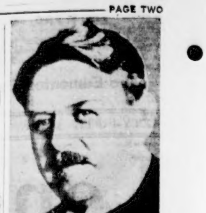
"By the arrangement, priority ratings will be applied by the United States to Canadian reconversion requirements in that country on lines as closely parallel to those applied by the United States government to United States domestic requirements as is practicable.

"The Canadian controls on materials and supplies will be operated so as to give effect to the same principle in respect of United States requirements from Canada.

"An effort will be made to relax and revoke regulations now in force covering production and distribution in the two countries on parallel lines as far as possible, though it is recognized that differing conditions in the two countries make exact parallelism impracticable".

One of the problems on which there will be co-operation will be the disposal of surplus war stores, said Mr. King.

The war industries of Canada and the United States have been closely integrated. Canadian war plants which required certain types of material from the United States—such as certain steels—received generally the same priority ratings as similar United States manufacturers.



DANES' PREMIER. — Wilhelm Buchi, former Socialist premier, has been named new head of the Danish government by King Christian X following surrender of that country by the Nazis.

States manufacturers.

In a number of critical goods—such as rubber—available supplies of the United Nations were pooled and quotas for individual countries were drawn from the pool on a comparable basis.

With the close integration of supplies of the two countries the wartime restrictions in Canada and the United States have followed generally similar lines.

Canadian Troops In High Esteem

SYDNEY, N.S., May 22—(CP)—Canada's "stock is high" in liberated Belgium and Holland because of the manner Canadian troops acquitted themselves in the parts of those countries they freed, Charles Lynch, Reuters war correspondent, said on his arrival here aboard a Royal Canadian Navy vessel. The Canadians have a knack of getting along with people and learning their language, and became very friendly with the Netherlanders.

RECTAL SORENESS AND PILE TORTURE QUICKLY RELIEVED

If you are troubled with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not delay treatment and run the risk of letting this trouble become chronic. Any itching or soreness or painful passage of stool is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once.

For this purpose get a package of Hem-Roid from Merrick Drug Stores or any druggist and use as directed. This formula which is used internally in a small, easy to take tablet, will quickly relieve the itching and soreness and aid in healing the sore tissue spots. Hem-Roid is pleasant to use, is highly recommended and it seems the height of folly for any one to risk a painful and serious pile condition when such a fine remedy may be had at such a small cost.

If you try Hem-Roid and are not entirely pleased with the results, your druggist will gladly return your money.

Dr. Frederic Staton and Dean Arthur Collingwood, adjdicators, said the aggregation of musicians from the Olds, Innisfail and Lacombe districts played with attack and precision and were always together.

Ida Mittelman of Calgary, a talented young pianist, received a total of 176 points, to be the highest as yet for the Edmonton Musicians' Association shield B.

Allies to Bear An Equal Share In Pacific War

WASHINGTON, May 22—(AP)—President Truman said today that British, Canadian and United States reconversion plans are being co-ordinated so that each country will bear its fair share of the Pacific war burden.

He added in transmitting the 19th report on lend-lease operations to Congress that the mutual aid program will continue as "a military necessity" until final victory.

There will be substantial reductions in the total volume of Allied war production now that Germany has been defeated," the report said. "Both in the United States and abroad, these reductions will permit some reconversion from war to civilian production and some increase in commercial exports.

CO-ORDINATE PLANS

"Plans for reconversion in the United States, Britain and Canada are being co-ordinated on a broad front so that these nations will be devoting equitable shares of industrial capacity to the war against Japan.

"Such adjustments must remain subject, of course, to the overriding consideration of maintaining the most effective flow of war supplies to win total victory over Japan."

Covering the period through March 31—more than a month before Germany's collapse—the report was silent on future lend-lease to Russia, which is not at war with Japan. It said however:

"The lend-lease programs of war aid to our allies have also been adjusted and reduced to take into account the end of hostilities in Europe and the new military situation. Future programs of lend-lease aid will continue to be based, as in the past, on the controlling consideration of the most effective prosecution of the war."

TOTAL SHIPMENTS

Total lend-lease shipments to Russia for the period covered by the report were listed at $8,410,000,000, with $3,285,000,000 sent in the last 12 months. Included were 13,300 airplanes, "more than to any other ally," 6,800 tanks and 312,000 tons of explosives.

Lend-lease aid to all allies amounted to $38,971,797,000, exclusive of consignments valued at $874,383,000 to commanding generals for transfer in the field to lend-lease countries. Most of the latter were turned over to the French forces in North Africa and to China.

309 May Contest Seats in Ontario

TORONTO, May 22—(CP)—A record total of 309 candidates appeared likely yesterday to contest the June 4 Ontario general provincial election. The number compares with 282 in the 1943 election and the previous record high of 293 in 1923 when there were 111 seats at stake. There now are 90 seats.

A compilation by The Canadian Press shows that the Progressive Conservative government forces of Premier Drew, which had 38 seats in the last legislature, have nominated 90 candidates, one in every riding.

The CCF official opposition in the last legislature with 32 members, has 88 candidates in the field. The Liberals have 79 candidates but eight others have party support—five Liberal-Labor, two UAF-Labor and one Liberal-Progressive—bringing the total also to 88. Liberals had 16 members in the last house.

CCF Supporters Said Unaware Of Party Plans

"wayside totalitarian systems; however innocently designed; whatever guise they assume; whatever liveries they wear; whatever slogans they mouth, are a fraud, which should be mercilessly exposed to the British public," said Mr. Bracken.

"The Canadian people are free people; they are temperamentally unsuited to dictatorship; no matter in what form it may be offered."

"The CCF makes a great play of human values: They hold themselves up as the salvation of the little man and his family. Well, where did the CCF stand when human values were at stake? Where did Mr. Coldwell (M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader) stand when the freedom of the world was at stake?

"He is the gentleman who was opposed to sending Canadian troops overseas."

Mr. Bracken gave a general outline of his party's policies, and reiterated his party was in favor of family allowances.

RUMORS UNTRUE

"I was informed in the Maritimes; in Ontario, and here in Manitoba, that people are being told that unless the King government is returned to power, the family allowances, scheduled for payment commencing July 1, will not be paid," he said. "These statements are without fact and I deprecate such tactics being employed by any political party."

"I did say that the present family allowances measure, as it was advanced by the government, was a political bribe. I would say the same thing now. The evidence is not far to seek.

"The measure was introduced a year and a half before it was intended it should come into effect, because the government wanted it on the statute books before an election was called.

"The best evidence that it was offered as political bait is to be found in a letter dated May 10, 1945, sent by Brooke Claxton, Liberal minister of national health and welfare, to senators, members of parliament and candidates of the Liberal party.

SAID IMPORTANT

"Mr. Claxton said in the letter that in discussing the record of the Liberal party during the election campaign, one of the most important features that could be mentioned was the Family Allowances Act.

"The Progressive Conservatives are particularly annoyed about the Family Allowances Act, because they realize that such a social security measure will be welcomed by the major portion of our citizens," Mr. Claxton said in the letter.

Mr. Bracken said that "if you are still in doubt that this $250,000,000 gift out of your own pockets, through your own taxes, is political bait; listen to Mr. Claxton's concluding paragraph:

"If there is any further information you require on the family allowances act, or the administration of the fact, please do not hesitate to write me personally. Also let me know if you want copies of the booklet—'Family Allowances—the Children's Charter' or the statement on income tax."

Mr. Bracken asked if that sounded "like legislation for the people, or political opportunism at the expense of the people."

The Progressive Conservative party favored family allowances and had no thoughts of removing it from the statute books. "If any change should be made in the law, it will be for its improvement," he said.

Selective Service Statement Shortly

OTTAWA, May 22.—(CP)—A government announcement may be forthcoming shortly on Canada's manpower situation, possibly regarding selective service regulations still in effect for male workers, it was learned yesterday.

Selective service controls affecting women workers were relaxed last week, but labor department officials have repeatedly warned there is a current manpower shortage in the Dominion. It is not thought likely that selective service regulations governing male workers would be removed while this shortage remains, but there might be some relaxation.

Campaign Opens Red Deer Riding

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

RED DEER, May 22—Senator W. McL. Robertson, president of the National Liberal Federation of Canada, opened the Red Deer election campaign Monday night, when he spoke in the interests of Claude J. Davidson, of Three Hills, Liberal candidate in the Red Deer riding.

In speaking of some of the things that had been done for the breadwinner by the present administration, the speaker spoke of unemployment insurance, the housing act, and farm improvement act. The program of rehabilitation for our returned men and women which would give them an opportunity to fit themselves into society again. Children's allowances was the greatest humanitarian legislation ever placed on the books.

It would be a great evener up of economy and a great business factor. Measures that should be established are a modern health plan in co-operation with the provinces and a contributory old age pension scheme.

Mr. Davidson, the candidate, spoke briefly, stressing the importance of Canada's good relations with other countries. "Never before were friendly relations as good as those established by the Liberal government," said the speaker. No individual was more capable of leading the country than Mr. King and Canada could not trust leadership of Canada to one without experience. Dr. C. R. Bunn, of Red Deer, was chairman.

Super-Secret Service

British 'Phantoms' Guided Victorious Allied Armies

By MARSHALL YARROW

PARIS, May 22.—(Reuters)—The thrilling story of "the phantoms", Britain's super-intelligence organization whose agents were dropped behind the German lines and watched the movements of the whole Germany army in Europe, was told yesterday by their Scottish commander.

Lt.-Col. Alexander McIntosh, of Dundruff, Fifeshire, a former gentleman farmer, described the organization which had its headquarters, with innocent-looking pigeon lofts, behind the Guards' Memorial in St. James' Park, London.

The Phantoms—identified by a white "P" on a black patch—contributed greatly to the scope, speed and completeness of many Allied victories in Europe. It was they who, by immediately telling Allied headquarters where every division, every regiment and even battalion was at the time of the Falaise battle in Normandy, led to the quick closing the gap and the colossal defeat of the German 7th army.

IN ENEMY TERRITORY

They dropped behind the enemy lines with their sending sets and lived there, secretly watching the lines of communication and daily sending out reports to the headquarters monitoring station on the volume of traffic and other details.

The Phantoms also provided army headquarters with details of forward operations with the least delay. This was done by sending patrols with the forward elements. They reported back to Phantom headquarters, which flashed the situation to army headquarters.

Other phantom crews, everyone a wireless expert, listened and plotted the conversations of tank crews in action, learning where they were and the positions of the enemy defences by piecing together the whole series of conversations even while the tank crews were not sure themselves in their isolated positions.

The Phantom's Saga has not been written clear by. Nearly half his regiment—50 officers and 1,250 other ranks—were casualties during the European campaign, but have since been replaced.

Registration Plan Remains Effective For Other Purposes

OTTAWA, May 22.—(CP)—National registration is still in full force and effect, the Labor department said yesterday. Persons 16 years and over must still carry their registration certificates and changes in address or marital status still must be reported. Persons reaching the age of 16 also are still required to register. The statement said the national registration was being used for a number of purposes in addition to the call-up for military service which has been suspended.

Refuse Give Eyes To Restore Sight

VANCOUVER, May 22.—(CP)—An attempt to obtain the eyes of a man who leaped to his death from a Vancouver bridge Saturday afternoon was made by a doctor shortly after the tragedy.

Dr. R. A. Seymour, first assistant superintendent, Vancouver General hospital, said yesterday that a doctor had made the attempt and was unsuccessful.

It was the doctor's intention, if the request had been granted, to use the dead man's cornea for "grafting" on to the eye of a blinded person. The cornea would be "transplanted" to the living person's eye, restoring sight, if the operation were successful.

Dr. Seymour explained that eyes are obtainable from a dead person only on permission of the latter's relatives.

Pensions—Not Charity

Year in and year out The Edmonton Bulletin has consistently advocated changes in the Old Age Pension legislation which will give a pension of at least $50 a month to everybody at the age of 60 without restrictions or qualifications.

Similarly The Bulletin has vigorously pressed for adequate pensions for everyone who through maiming, blindness or paralysis or any like physical misfortune becomes unemployable at any age.

These two reforms have been urged in and out of season because it is our firm belief that the end of common humanity and common decency cannot be served by any lesser provisions, first, for the pioneers who have built this glorious country and now find themselves in want in the evening of their lives and, secondly, for those who have become a special charge upon the conscience of our civilization through their very helplessness.

The monthly payment of $50 is fixed as the bare minimum because no one can live on less. The age of 60 is fixed as the time for the beginning of pension payments because at 60 the productive capacity of the average individual has begun to fall appreciably and unless the minimum age is set at 60 great hardship is bound to be suffered by many worthy persons who have contributed largely in their age of usefulness to the wealth of the state.

The removal of qualifications and restrictions has been strongly advocated because the system which requires an aged person to be a pauper before he can receive these pensions is iniquitious, degrading and shameful.

For these payments are pensions. They are not charity.

Some improvements in the Old Age Pensions system have been affected in Alberta and British Columbia. In this province, for instance, the provincial government has made itself responsible up to $365 per year—the largest sum permitted to be paid by the federal authorities under the act.

The reactionary and unworthy policy of the Hon. J. L. Ilsley has consistently blocked reforms in this direction. Mr. Ilsley, it will be remembered, declined to adjust Old Age Pensions on one occasion because it would upset his budget, refuting in his refusal the very argument advanced by Prime Minister King for Family Allowances, namely, that the measure would give "purchasing power to those who need it most."

Mr. Ilsley would place Old Age Pensions on a contributory basis. And that, of course, is utter nonsense. No pension or other tax is levied at such a rate that any person who did not require a pension would automatically have this pension money taken away by the income tax.

The matter of pensions for the aged and unemployable is a vital social issue in Canada, first, because it touches eventually every man and woman in the Dominion and, secondly, because it takes the measure of our civilization.

Voters will be well advised to ask any candidate seeking their votes just exactly where they stand on this issue. Those who would pauperize recipients, those who would fix the minimum age at a high level and those who would hold the pension down below the mark of reasonable subsistence do not possess that social conscience necessary for the enlightened government of an enlightened country.

32,000 More Back-Logs

More than 32,000 persons in Edmonton have built barricades of 8th Victory Loan bonds between themselves and their families and the uncertainties of the future. This figure excludes "special names", which term includes corporations. The total may be larger when some late returns have been added. It is safe to say the number of subscribers is the largest ever registered in a bond sale in this city.

So is the amount of subscriptions, $7,580,740 as at Saturday night. This was 124.2 per cent of the original quota, only .5 per cent below the per centage recorded in the 7th Loan sale last fall.

The city's permanent population being around the 100,000 mark, it is safe to assume that, including the children, one-half of the people living in Edmonton have thus acquired a new "back log" of future spending power and personal security.

Of course many of the 8th Loan buyers had bought previous issues. And some who bought former issues have sold their bonds. There is no way therefore of calculating accurately how many Edmonton people are now holders of bonds of one or more issues.

What is certain is that never before had so large a proportion of the population taken this means to provide for future personal needs or economic defence. Edmonton to a remarkable degree has become a city of war bond-holders.

V

The Conditions Precedent

Mayor Butler might be surprised to be told, but people in all other parts of Canada know and have long known that the city of Halifax rated A1 among servicemen as the most undesirable city in the Dominion in which to be quartered.

Sailors returning on leave to their homes in the west have been particularly positive in their dislike of the place. This because thousands of them have lived there for months on end; while soldiers and airmen in most cases were only temporary visitors.

Stories have been current in Edmonton for many months that Halifax was a place where merchants and restaurant-men had two prices—one, the higher, for men in uniform. These stories have come firsthand from navymen who spent months in the city and were emphatic in the claim that they had been systematically "fleeced."

What this had to do with the V-day rioting can only be surmised. Obviously the atmosphere around the navies quarters was surcharged with something that wasn't amiability. The Kellock commission may or may not deal with this background condition. It should.

Meanwhile the Halifax authorities would have been doing only the fair thing if they had stayed court proceedings until the report of the investigating commission is completed and published. To put it mildly, the courts would have been in better position to do justice to all parties concerned if they were not called on to act in specific instances until the circumstances had been surveyed and presented in judicial fashion.

Domei sagely concludes that Germany was defeated because it misruled the occupied countries and because the Allies developed too much military strength. This hardly comes under the heading of new discoveries. But since the Jap news agency has seen the light, perhaps Suzuki and his cabinet colleagues will sense the implications of this Allied military power being no longer concentrated upon the Reich.

Strikes spread across Syria when a new contingent of French troops arrived there. In 1943 France gave up its mandate over Syria and Lebanon but is still contractually responsible for their defence, although they do not seem to need much defending. The League of Nations having ceased to function, there is no way by which this responsibility can be formally ended until the new security organization gets into action. The Syrians evidently are less concerned about the legalities of the situation than with what they think the arrival of the French troops may signify.

Helping Discharged Service Men

Here Are Ten Commandments Which Civilians Should Study Carefully

By MARY ALICE QUAYNE

We have been hearing a lot about rehabilitation. And now that V-E Day is past we are going to hear more and more about rehabilitation. It will be during the post-war period that civilians will be called upon to do their part which up to now has only been to support war loans and other war efforts.

In New York the Rehabilitation Division of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene recently issued ten commandments to help civilians in guiding discharged service men back to normal peacetime living. Many men will come back with attitudes which seem strange to the folks at home.

As a guide to receiving and helping a man scarred in mind or body they suggest:

(1) Welcome him warmly and quietly—don't call a family reunion.

(2) Listen understandingly, but don't pry into battle experiences.

(3) Face the reality of disability but don't magnify it. Focus on what is left—not what is lost.

(4) Treat him as a normal, competent person.

(5) Commend his efforts and success and ignore the slips. We all prefer praise to nagging.

(6) Expect him to be different. Take him to get reacquainted.

(7) Allow him time and freedom to become readjusted and re-established.

(8) Create an atmosphere of expectancy, encourage him to take up his favorite hobbies, to look for congenial work and lead a normal social life, but avoid pushing or regulating him. Top-sergeant methods won't work at home.

(9) Get professional help if needed in solving personal or family problems. Don't just muddle through.

(10) Let your own faith and spirit be your chief stock in trade.

Other situations will require attention: There will doubtless be many financial home problems. Some of the war marriages, hastily entered into, will find difficult sailing. Young people will need help in achieving mutual understanding so that World War II marriages will not end in separation like so many did in World War I.

From Vancouver comes encouragement for sightless people, for in that city more than sixty such people are working in outside industry today. This is due to the efforts of one man who didn't consider blindness a tragedy, merely a handicap, and because of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

This sightless man assists in the readjustment to life of other blind people, to help them to find and hold jobs. For one thing, he scans the city for jobs suitable for blind workers. First, he interviews the manager of an industrial plant or workshop, and gains permission to survey the plant and see what jobs a sightless person could perform satisfactorily.

Then he himself tries out each job, as a sightless person, to be sure that it can really be done, without danger to himself or fellow workers, and without slowing down production.

Next he must find the person to fill the job. At the institute is the "sheltered shop" where newly-blinded people start their industrial life afresh, where their case histories are taken, their various abilities are sought out and strengthened, their courage is developed. From this shop they graduate to jobs in the outside industrial world.

Finding the right man for the right job is important for if the employer should lose confidence in one sightless worker he is likely to lose confidence in all. When he has chosen the man, he takes him down to Selective Service. Then he stays with him for the first day on the job to be sure that he is fitting in well.

He keeps in close touch with the worker, trying to iron out the difficulties he comes up against. They may arise from his adjustments to fellow workers, from the equipment he works with, from his own mental outlook.

Always, he says, he has met with the utmost co-operation from the employers, plant superintendents and foremen—and their generosity has paid them dividends.

There was the case of the sightless girl who went to work in a Vancouver war plant. Two weeks after her employment it was found that she was worth her pay check whether she turned in any work or not, because her cheerfulness and touched a responsive chord in the other workers. Before she came, he said, morale at the plant had reached an all-time low; production was down. The tone of the whole place had changed.

And besides their high record in production record—after just two weeks—was away ahead of every one of her sighted competitors.

So we should realize that blindness is not a tragedy, and that there may well be for the blind a chance to do a job, and do it well.

War Service of West Africa

By A. P. PEARCE

West African troops are serving against the Japanese with high spirits, courage and an unflinching will to victory. Nor is the story of the Burma campaign the first chapter in the history of West Africa's war service.

Since the outbreak of war, thousands of volunteers from British West Africa have fought or on so wide a scale as that now raging slowly between the Russians and the German-Austrian allies at the San river. An illustration of the magnitude of the struggle is the published estimate that 2,000,000 shells have been fired across that stream in four days.

Their Nigerians made a record by advancing over 1,000 miles in 30 days — and polishing off enemy opposition on the way.

To the "courage and cheerfulness" of these troops, General Cunningham paid special tribute, but the same is due of many other exploits of individuals and groups. Their spirit is typified in the story of the West African fighter who warned not to expose himself so recklessly to Italian bullets, laughed back, "I'm wounded already!" — and went on fighting.

For these men of the Royal West African Frontier Force, there was necessarily a long pause of rest and training between the East African victories and their entry into the Burma fighting. But, in the meantime, the West African Pioneers were helping to consolidate Allied advances in North Africa. Their jobs — like the building of Tobruk hospital—would often be in a "place which had been the scene of fighting", described as Sergeant O. A. Banjo of Nigeria put it, adding, "We are all thrilled."

The essential but unglorious work included the rebuilding of shattered communications, the continual maintenance of vital supplies and (at one piece) the assembly of military vehicles, which, from the moment of arrival in parts and crated, to the moment of being driven off in perfect running order for operational areas, took only 20 working hours apiece.

Wherever they went the Pioneers, like their countrymen of the Frontier Force, showed unlimited skill, energy and indomitable spirit. On one emergency job of dock unloading, a group worked tirelessly all day and all night — singing. When one Nigerian unit had rebuilt a cinema for a neighboring Royal Air Force station, they lent their African band for the opening night. The British airmen were so delighted that they made a ceremonial presentation to the band leader of a mace, made from a German shell case and the wood from a German aircraft propeller. This mace, suitably inscribed, is to be kept in Nigeria as a memento of good fellowship in a common cause.

When the Allied forces took the stride from North Africa to Sicily and Italy, the West Africans were not far behind. In fact, they were there even before the enemy had given up his desperate attempt to turn the invaders back with fire and air. Among the ripening grapes of a Sicilian vineyard, their first camping place on Italian soil, West Africans were shown by British Tommies how to dig the slit trenches that are their best cover from air attack. It was, for the West Africans, one more experience of close co-operation under fire that has carried them forward so successfully from the time of their earliest service in their own home continent.

And at last—perhaps at not too distant a date—the West Africans will come to the end of a long have travelled many thousands of miles in their own continent, seen the crack of the Italian Empire in Africa, viewed the Pyramids and visited Jerusalem, and the ancient cities of Italy, as well as Burma. Their horizons will have widened immensely in terms of foreign lands and foreign peoples, and in terms of new trades and techniques that have practical uses for peace as well as war.

But above all, those West African servicemen will have memories of comradeship with Allied forces often cemented by battle, and especially friendship with the people of the British Empire with whom they chose to range themselves for the defeat of the enemies of civilization.

Real Peace and Heaven Too?

San Francisco Conference Beginning to Reach for Too Much

By EDGAR ANSEL MOWRER

SAN FRANCISCO—The world's human reaching for "all this and heaven, too" is beginning to show up here. If it develops it could become a real menace to the success of this conference. For the aim of this meeting—let's say it again—is to draft the charter for an organization to keep the peace of the world. Everything else is secondary. Two years ago when the war was not going so well, most suffering individuals took this for granted. They were willing to pay practically any price for lasting peace. Now that Germany is out and Japan tottering, many of them are wondering if they can't get lasting peace and some other nice things as well. In the process they are whittling down the powers of the projected international organization to a point where it could prove inadequate to its task.

The centre of the new organization is the Security Council, a device for giving the five big powers able to win the war equally responsible for keeping the peace. This may not be the only method. It may not be the best method. But it is the method the drafters of the Dumbarton Oaks proposals chose. It cannot be much changed without destroying it.

Therefore, any step that weakens the Security Council or tends to divide the five great powers upon whose unity the Security Council's efficiency depends, makes the keeping of future peace more precarious. Several such steps have appeared here and will be taken at the San Francisco Conference—and more are in the offing.

The first was the admission to membership in the assembly of the two Soviet Union republics, Ukraine and White Russia. Inoffensive in itself, this move consented to by President Roosevelt at Yalta and therefore hard to reject here, awakened further suspicion of the Soviet Union in delegations all too prone to believe each time Joe Stalin scratches himself.

The next more serious mistake was the admission of fascist and still unregenerate Argentina to a United Nations conference. The act of Chapultepec did not require this. Anyway, it made Argentina's joining the United Nations a pre-requisite. Argentina's insolent rulers have not joined the United Nations. Yet at the insistence of a lot of Latin American countries with the support of the United States delegation, Argentina was unconditionally admitted. No wonder the Soviet delegation took this as a sign of hostility.

Worse followed. France and the Soviet Union succeeded in having it written into the coming world charter that defensive treaties against ex-enemies should be allowed to function automatically independent of action by the Security Council.

Emboldened by this, the anti-Soviet Latin Americans—backed by the usual crowd of ex-isolationist U.S. Americans—made a drive to obtain a western hemispheric regional organization with whose operations the Security Council should be forbidden to interfere at all. This would virtually have destroyed the Security Council and was not allowed. But its champions thought they had punched another hole in world-wide security.

Meanwhile the American brass hats—in apparent forgetfulness of the fact that in this country men in uniform can have no political opinions—were working with a bunch of civilian militarists, ex-isolationists, so-called "nationalists" and Russophobes to secure outright for the United States the specific bases they covet, thus undermining the blueprinted plan for United Nations' trusteeship. That's arithmetic. Very simple. "We" need these islands for "our" security (not for the security of the world or general peace). "We" took these islands with "our" blood.

Sounds fine—until the Russians begin to use it. But when "they" say that "they" conquered Poland and Roumania and Yugoslavia with "their" blood, and that "they" may need Vienna and Prague and perhaps Hamburg and Korea for "their" security, then watch the U.S. American nationalists flap their arms and bellow.

These Americans do not want world peace and international equity based on world cooperation. They want "our" bases based on privileges for us. In other words "all this and heaven too."

Parliament Stayed in Town

Some of the experiences of Britain's parliament during the war have recently been released. Before the war began, and before the effects of heavy air attacks on London could be estimated, elaborate plans were made for the evacuation of parliament to Stratford-on-Avon, where the two houses would have met in the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre. But when the bombing started, the members decided that parliament should remain in London whatever the risk, and the idea of evacuation was dropped.

Throughout the war years, therefore, parliament has continued to meet in London, and has continued its sessions without interruption even during the periods of intense bombing of the capital.

Since the Houses of Parliament are such a prominent military target, it was thought prudent to pick an alternative meeting place for use should the building be seriously damaged. Church House, the administrative headquarters of the Church of England, was chosen, and both Houses met there for the first time on November 7, 1940.

It was a wise precaution. The Commons Chamber was destroyed during the air raid on the night of May 10, 1941—being the twelfth time the Houses had been hit by bombs. In spite of the serious damage caused, parliament moved back to the old building after five weeks, and the House of Commons was installed in the Lords Chamber, while the House of Lords met in the King's Robing room. Another precautionary move was caused by a flying bomb attack last year, and from June 20 to August 3, the Houses of Parliament again held their meeting in Church House.

The present temporary chamber is equipped with reproductions of the Speaker's chair and table of the House of Lords. The copy was brought daily from the Palace of Westminster.

Lady on the Train Who Cried

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

The lady got on the train at Oakland and began to cry. She cried and cried and cried for a hundred miles. Theatre-goers couldn't see her so he didn't try to collect her ticket. We were half way to the Oregon boundary, I guess, when she stopped crying and took the handkerchief from her face. One observed then that she was a handsome lady of middle years with fine white hair and a motherly face.

What she had been crying about we never discovered, for most of the men in the car had withdrawn to the smoking room, unable to bear her tears. But when she resumed, a miserable grief-stricken lady suddenly began to pour out her views on public policy and I think, as a fragment of evidence in the great mystery of the United States, they are worth recording. Also a little terrifying. For I realized that she was worth her pay check whether she turned in any work or not, because her cheerfulness and touched a responsive chord in the other workers. Before she came, he said, morale at the plant had reached an all-time low; production was down. The tone of the whole place had changed.

And besides their high record in production record—after just two weeks—

ment is politics! The country is being run by politicians.

"The things I could tell you. Why did we help arm and train Japan to be fired back at our soldiers? Politics, of course. Pearl Harbor—that was politics, but they'll deny it. Why was all our fleet there together to be bombed—why? It was political, that's why. Why are all our fleet there now? Politics! It all up.

"I've lived all my life in San Francisco. It was a good place to live in. Now look at it. Look at it. Full of negroes, hundreds of thousands of them. And they're getting the vote! Just imagine, a negro, has the same vote as I have! Everybody has the same vote as I have. White men who can hardly write their names have the same vote in the United States now—and they all voted for Roosevelt. Everybody has the same vote, no matter how ignorant, and they call this democracy. Do you think that's what I'm going to do?" she demanded earnestly, as if she were going to do something desperate. "I'm never going to vote again!"

She paused to let this sink in and went on: "Now I don't want you to think I'm prejudiced. I'm not. Why, I wouldn't even mind the New Deal if it weren't political. I would have been for it if they had kept it out of politics. But no, they put the New Deal in politics, they put everything in politics, why"—her eyes were glazed with horror—"they've put the government of the country in politics! That's all Roosevelt was, a politician, and that's all Truman is, too. Just politicians. Now they're going to feed the whole world at our expense, they're going to make a league of nations, they're going to reduce the tariff and put our factories out of business, and what for? For politics, of course. And the people will support them, they'll get re-elected, they're stupid and stupid to do anything else—negroes, and Italians and Japs and everybody who can come across on a ballot paper, and they call that democracy! And Mrs. Roosevelt telling the niggers they are as good as anyone else and sitting them up until you can't get a cook for less than $150 a month!

"I tell you, young man, once the politicians got hold of the country it was through, and it's through all right—through! It used to be a good country, run by businessmen. What we need is a businessman to run the government like any other business, to keep it run by politics, and look at it! Look at the taxes! Look at the rationing. Look at the black market. Why, I haven't had a roast of beef for six months.

"So do you know what I'm going to do?" he asked defiantly. "I'm going to live in Canada. There's a country with some sanity left. I'm going to sell all my property—I've got a little cottage on Vancouver Island. I've been there on my vacations and I know about it. Everybody has the vote! Just imagine, I can get away from the wops and the niggers—and the politicians."

She began to cry again and I retreated to the smoker. A prosperous gentleman, who ran a sandwich shop on Market street, said he didn't know what the lady was a trifle off her head. But as for Roosevelt and the politicians and the negroes, he said, the lady was perfectly right and nearly everybody felt the same way. Except, apparently, a majority of the democratic electorate.

PROGRESSIVE-CONSERVATIVE VIEWPOINTS

Rehabilitation

The present rehabilitation plan is the result of 25-years' effort, by various Dominion Command Overseas Veterans' Organizations. It is good in many ways, and much of the basic plan must be retained—BUT, because of it demands IMMEDIATE REVISION.

Administration needs to acquire sympathy and understanding . . . red tape must be cleared away . . . the present scale of benefits must be revised to meet individual cases and increased to meet living costs.

Our Progressive-Conservative Party will make these changes . . . and our war-veteran candidates guarantee that veterans' interests will be handled, by men who KNOW THE URGENCY AND UNDERSTAND THE PROBLEMS.

My pledge to Edmonton East voters: I will represent the welfare of our returned sons and husbands to the best of my ability. I will discharge my duties with all the wisdom, resource and humanity I can command.

Mr. Justice Humphreys wants a new word to describe a woman who has obtained her divorce. In a case he was trying such a woman described herself as a spinster.

The judge asked counsel what was the correct word to describe her, and received the answer: "It is sometimes said that she is divorced Mr. Somebody-or-other."

The judge: "That is the last way such a woman would describe herself. She would say that she had been the divorcing party. A new word is wanted. You might consider it at your next Bar dinner."

BRITAIN'S NO. 1 OBJECTIVE—Recovery of the great naval base at Singapore, "impregnable" until the Japs quickly overwhelmed it by surprise from the rear, is the main objective of British operations in southeast Asia. From map above, it can be seen that recapture of Burma opens possibilities of overland assault from there, coordinated with amphibious landings on the west coast of the Malay peninsula.

Supplements Might Confuse Inexperienced Hog Feeders

Protein supplements, mineral supplements and vitamin supplements with instructions to use certain kinds at particular times for special purposes, tend to confuse the inexperienced feeder of hogs, according to E. Van Nice of the Dominion Experimental Station, Scott, Sask.

If milk is available in a quantity equal to two or three pounds to each pound of grain fed, the supplement problem is largely solved. However, as few feeders have sufficient milk, other supplements are required in many cases. Actual feeding tests have shown that correct supplements used in proper quantities more than pay for themselves, but generous feeders have been known to use extra quantities or different kinds of supplements not required which made the feed cost higher than necessary.

NOT AVAILABLE

When milk is not available much may be said in favor of using a commercial concentrate prepared to supply the needs of the pig. There are two main preparations or supplements on the market, namely:

1. The pig starter for the little pigs before and after weaning, and for breeding stock.
2. The general purpose supplement for the main growing period and for finishing for market.

A specified quantity of one or other of these supplements mixed with the chop in each case supplies both protein and mineral requirements.

SPRING CLEANING

When spring cleaning there's no need for a house to be upset for days on end, family life disrupted, and mothers completely tired out, according to Vera Macdonald, supervisor of the women's extension service. With good planning a six room house can be cleaned easily over a two week period with only two days of upheaval.

First, a room by room survey is advisable so that a note may be made of everything that needs to be done, from repairing a leaky faucet and mending the fringe on a rug, to buying a glass coaster for the settee. Next comes a shopping tour to pick up such items as shelf paper, enamel and moth balls. Check up on cleaning supplies.

COUCH GRASS CONTROL

Couch grass, once one of the most troublesome weeds in Alberta, has met its master in the form of the one-way disc. Before the advent of the one-way the common method of controlling couch grass was to plow up the sod and endeavour to bring all of the roots to the surface where the sun would kill them or where they could be raked up and burned. The labour involved was tremendous and the success attained often out of all proportion with the labor and expense involved.

FERTILIZING TREES

Should fertilizer be applied to trees and if so in what manner? The chief causes of lardy growth of trees are lack of water or impervious subsoil, states E. C. Hallman, supervisor, farmstead planning service. Under ordinary circumstances, trees have sufficient spread of roots to reach adequate food supplies. However, in particularly gravelly or otherwise poor soil areas may be fertilized by the use of farmyard manure spread broadly over the area of ground covered by the spread of the tree.

In lawns, where the application of manure is not be practical, commercial fertilizer (Ammonium phosphate 11-48) can be applied. This can be done by punching holes into the soil 18 inches deep with an iron bar, 3 or 4 feet apart under the tree and pouring a cupful into each hole a handful of the fertilizer.

Water copiously so as to dissolve the fertilizer without letting any overflow run over the grass. For watering, surface irrigation is the most practicable, if a thorough soaking is given to that the moisture penetrates to the roots. The best watering device for lawns where pressure is available is a sub-soil waterer.

This is described by Mr. Hallman as a quarter-inch pipe probe, 2½ feet in length, with vents near the point and a funnel shaped attachment at the upper end. This probe may be inserted to the root area of trees and shrubs, and the water applied until the ground is saturated and the water springs up to the surface.

A recent issue of the Manchester (England) Evening Chronicle received by the Dominion Department of Agriculture says in an article "Eggs by the million are coming into Manchester and other areas of Northwest England. These big supplies are coming from Canada and are being cleared as quickly as transport can be found."

"The Secretary of the Manchester and Salford District, Grocers' Association said—'Canada has certainly done the big thing. We have not yet had one bad egg reported. They are a marvellous lot and being distributed as fast as they come into the shops.'"

In the first 3½ months of this year, more than 24 million dozen Canadian fresh eggs have been shipped to Britain. These are the first fresh eggs shipped from Canada since early in 1942. In the intervening years all shipments have been in the form of dried egg powder which continues to go forward in large quantities.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

LEADERSHIP of the Edmonton senior baseball circuit will be settled at least temporarily when Arrows and U.S. Signallers meet in their scheduled clash at Renfrew Park tonight. Both won their opening games, Arrows taking Dodgers 9-1 last Saturday and Signallers earning a 7-4 decision over Yanks on Sunday.

Arrows appear to be a much improved team over last year and if Morrie Hawkey is going his usual gait should make it tough for the opposition. In knocking over the Yanks the Signallers also looked quite a ball club, with a really fine infield which also included most of the offensive power.

Bob Sawyer is expected to work at least part of tonight's session. Bob won five straight and did one relief job during the regular season in '44 and wasn't beaten until the playoffs when he won two and lost the same number. Hawkey won four and dropped five and appeared in six other games.

TARGET BALL SPLASH HIT

BILL PETERSON, swimming coach at Northwestern University who is in charge of the U.S. Navy compulsory swim program, has come up with a game which the boys really enjoy while learning how to handle themselves in the water.

"Water target ball" is the new game and it is proving so popular Peterson now has a new problem on his hands of keeping the fellows out of the water.

The game is a combination of water polo and basketball and has simplified rules which keep it running with little supervision. The goals are two vertical backboards 46 inches high and 40 wide with a hole in the middle, 16 inches in diameter. A regular eight-inch water polo ball is used.

The five-man teams open the game by racing for the ball in the middle of the pool. From then on the object is to throw the ball through the target. The hole is too high to permit goal tending and so the defensive work is man-to-man. Any player with the ball may be held under water until he releases it.

Fouls are called for unnecessary roughness and the fouled player is awarded a free throw from the centre of the pool.

The vertical target was adopted in order to give the contestants a chance to throw instead of lobbing the ball as is done in water basketball.

In all respects the game is patterned to teach the sailors how to handle themselves in the water under combat conditions and still allow him to enjoy playing. Several other Big 10 coaches are interested in the experiment, and it is quite possible the game might be adopted by other universities with intercollegiate competition an ultimate result.

Winners Trounce Girls' Fastball League Leaders 11-3

Walk-Rites Hand Mortons First Defeat

JOE LOUIS, GOLFER—In addition to possessing a pair of dynamite-laden dukes, Staff Sgt. Joe Louis also swings a pretty fair putter, according to some of the gallery which watched the world's heavyweight champion in action at Mayfair Golf and Country Club on Sunday afternoon. After leaving the senior baseball game at Renfrew Park, Joe, along with Lt. Louis J. Krem and Sgt. Robert Goldstein, paid a visit to Mayfair. His original plan called for nine holes, but he took time out to squeeze in a couple more. "I like the game but can't get in very much these days," the champion told Tomsy Morrison, secretary-manager at Mayfair, who asserts that Joe "certainly can hit a golf ball, and he has nice approach." The above picture of the famous fighter was taken at Mayfair. Joe left Edmonton Monday morning for a tour of United States air bases in the north, but he will return to the city tomorrow. Louis will attend the Alaskan Division Golden Gloves boxing tournament on both Thursday and Friday nights and he will referee some of the finals.

Both Clubs Collect 10 Safe Hits

WALK-RITES marked up a half dozen runs in the sixth inning and then went on to trounce Mortons 11-3, thus ending the latter team's undefeated record in Girls' Fastball League at three straight, at Kingsway Park on Monday night.

The two teams staged a slugfest in the latter innings, both collecting a total of 10 in the nine-inning contest. But Morton's contributed nine errors and the Walk-Rites made the best of them to chalk up their one-sided victory.

Margaret Boyce waved the big bat for the winners, slamming a double and two singles in five times at bat. Annabelle Thompson collected three for four and Millie McAuley had two for three for the league leaders.

Merrie Mercer made her debut as a pitcher for Mortons and remained out of serious trouble until the sixth when she had to be relieved by Annabelle Thompson. Lil Schroyan and Ann Boyce handled the mound duties for the winners, Schroyan marking up her initial victory.

Mortons took the lead in the top half of the third when Kay Lyons and Millie McAuley rounded the sacks on a single, two errors and an out at first, but Murray Saidman's girls came through with three in the bottom half of the same frame to take the lead, which they held.

Mabel McCormack started the Walk-Rite scoring rally when she reached first on an error at that base. Mary Nadeau, next to the plate, sent her to second with a single to left field and Babs Kasting drove her in and advanced Nadeau to third on a safety to short field. A long double to centre field by Margaret Boyce drove in both Kasting and Nadeau.

Walk-Rites added another in the fifth and Ken Chaffey's club marked up another in the top of the sixth. Then came Walk-Rites big inning which settled the ball game and put wings on Mortons' hopes for a fourth straight win.

The winners added another in the seventh, just for good measure.

Chandler's Rule of Minors May End Next January 12

NEW YORK, May 22.—(AP) — Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler rules the minor leagues until Jan. 12, 1946, but there were indications his reign of the smaller loops might end at that date.

Representatives of minor league baseball, feeling they were ignored in the election of Chandler after asking a voice in naming a Landis successor, converge on New York Wednesday to open a three-day session.

One of the most important matters to be discussed in drawing up a new major-minor agreement will be the first clause of the expiring pact calling for recognition of the position of commissioner.

Although none of the minor spokesmen would go on record in opposition to Chandler and all boosted him personally, there was an undercurrent of resentment against the majors.

The minors had no vote in the late Judge Kenesaw Landis' selection and paid none of his salary but had asked at a Feb. 26 session in Chicago for consideration in naming his successor. They said they were willing to bear a share of the cost.

Thomas H. Richardson, chairman of the executive committee, said the Chicago suggestion had never been answered nor had there been a reply from a similar offer sent to the majors' advisory council in Cleveland when Chandler was elected.

Territorial restrictions and a higher waiver price were voted at Chicago and probably will be included in the text of the new agreement, subject to approval by the National Association of Minor Leagues in December and by the two majors.

Proposals for changes in the old code, received by the committee since the February sessions, will be considered and the new rules will be codified preparatory to a joint conclave with the majors' representatives in mid-summer.

With a full month of major league play under his belt, the young rookie is not doing any boasting of how he'll wind up the season. He knows that filling the shoes of Bobby Doerr is a man-sized job.

However, Ben is determined that he'll be in there battling just as long as Manager Cronin sees fit to play him.

Steiner has already proven that he's not the type of fellow that takes all the bows. If he makes good, he says, all the credit should go to Nemo Liebold, the guy who showed him how in the minors.

Three Straight

S. Side Athletics Unbeaten By Downing AZA Fastballers

South Side Athletics maintained their unbeaten string in the City Junior Fastball League Monday night when they scored two runs in the fifth inning to defeat a much improved AZA club 3-1 for their third straight victory at Kingsway Park.

A double, an error and two wild pitches allowed the winning runs in the fifth. Stewart started off the inning with a two base hit to left field. Russ Stogryn, next up, reached first on an error which sent Stewart to third. A wild pitch allowed Stewart to score from third and advanced Stogryn to second. Stogryn reached third on another wild pitch and a passed ball allowed him to cross the plate.

The AZA crew got their only tally in the fourth inning while the Athletics marked up their first counter in the bottom half of the same frame.

Don Wynn turned in the best night at the plate when he connected for a double and a single in three times at bat.

Arrows To Play Signals Tonight

Arrows will play U.S. Signals in a City Senior Baseball League game at Renfrew Park tonight commencing at 7 o'clock.

Opening Game of Junior Baseball League Postponed

Opening game of the Edmonton Junior Baseball League, which was set for May 24 at Clarke Stadium, has been postponed, it was announced last night by President Phil Horn. The curtain raiser, between Edmonton Athletic Club and Canadian Athletic Club teams, has been moved on to Wednesday, May 30 at 6:30 o'clock at the Stadium.

The game between Arrows and South Side, originally scheduled as a league fixture, at North Edmonton grounds at 6:30 on Thursday, will be played, but will be classed as an exhibition.

Considerable work has been done on the ball park at the Stadium, but no bleachers have been erected yet and it is expected these will be built by May 30. The diamond is in good shape and the back-stop has been put up, but league officials felt it would be good judgment to postpone the opening date and have everything complete.

Official opening ceremonies will take place next Wednesday, but particulars of this will be announced later.

Today's Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy

NEW YORK, May 22.—(BUP)—If chipper Charley Grimm had his banjo with him, he was strummin' Monday as his Cubs headed home to Chicago after snapping their losing streak with a doubleheader victory before 36,176 flabbergasted Brooklyn fans.

Mighty sweet for manager Charley were those two wins Sunday at Ebbets Field. They took the curse off a woeful road trip. They fanned the flickering flamm of pennant hope in Jolly Cholly Bosom.

"This was the turning point," declared Grimm in the dressing room. "Things will imrove from here. We're a much better club than we've been looking lately."

Cholly wasn't so jolly when his faltering athletes took the field against the formidable Dodgers who had scheduled their ace pitchers: Curt Davis and Hal Gregg. It could be said that Charley was grim, if you'll pardon the pun.

HAD LOST SIX IN ROW

HIS CUBS were working on a losing streak of six straight. Moreover, they had lost nine of 12 games on their trip, which opened at St. Louis, May 5. They had dropped from second position, tied with Pittsburgh for fifth position, and they hadn't won a Sunday game since April 22, when they dumped the Pirates twice.

All this was forgotten, however, as the valiant Chicagoans went to work on the Dodgers—on their own home field—before the largest Brooklyn crowd of the season. The Cubs won, 4-2 and 4-1. Veteran Paul Derringer registered his fifth pitching victory of the season in the opener, and Hank Wyse took the handicap. According to Jack Smith of the New York Daily News the Cubs turned Brooklyn's "team of destiny" to a "team of dustiny."

In the dressing room Grimm said, "We'll do better from now on. Catcher Mickey Livingstone will join us again at Chicago. He hasn't been with us since May 9 and we've missed him a lot. He was hitting .311, you know. He was called home when a high wind blew down his house and farm buildings near Columbia, South Carolina. His wife was injured, too.

GETTING BACK IN FORM

BILL NICHOLSON is getting back into hitting form. You know what a difference big Bill will make when he really goes to town. Claude Passeau has been pitching: but he's been handicapped by arm trouble that is yielding to treatment now and Ed Hanyzewski's arm should be back in shape soon. We'll do all right from now on. This double win over Brooklyn was just the lift the club needed.

Now that Grimm and his Bruins had played every club in the National League, could he say which outfit impressed him most?

"Certainly—the Giants. They're a tough team. They're getting fine pitching, and they pack a lot of punch."

But won't the Giants slow up when hot weather hits them?"

"I see no reason why hot weather should make them slump off," Grimm said. "The Giants have a good combination of veterans and young players, and believe me their veterans are in good condition—Ott, Lombardi, Weintraub and the like. I wish something would slow them up but I don't depend upon hot weather to do it. Incidentally, the Braves have improved so much that Boston is tough for any club to beat now."

AT NORTH EDMONTON.—Elsie Vaughan, hurler for Walk-Rites of the City Girls' Fastball League, will pitch in the game against Army and Navy Pats on Thursday, May 24, at the North Edmonton Sports Day. Other activities, including a junior baseball contest at 6:30 o'clock will also be staged at the big affair. The fastball fixture starts at 2 o'clock.

Dave Castilloux Retains Crown

SAINT JOHN, N.B., May22—(CP)—Dave Castilloux, Montreal, successfully defended his Dominion lightweight boxing title last night with a close 10-round decision over Ralph Walton, Montreal negro. Castilloux weighed 134¼ and Walton 133¼.

One judge gave the champion only two points more than Walton. The other gave Castilloux four rounds, Walton two and called the rest even. Referee Joe Irvine termed it a draw.

Many fans thought Walton had won and others favored a draw.

Castilloux opened up but was unable to put Walton away and never had the colored boy groggy.

Close to 4,000 fans, a record fight crowd for Saint John, saw the bout.

Donnelly Blanks Brooklyn

Lombardi Hits Two Homers, But Giants Lose to Pirates

PITTSBURGH, May 22.—(AP)—Ernie Lombardi hit two home runs for New York's only scores as the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Giants 5-2 in the first National League night game of the season here.

A crowd of 21,682 saw Lombardi hit his homers, his eighth and ninth of the season.

Big Max Butcher held the Giants to four hits in winning his third game of the season against two losses.

The Pirates started scoring in the first inning, getting three runs on a walk, Johnny Barrett's triple, Tommy O'Brien's double and two infield outs.

They added one in the third and one in the seventh to sew up the game.

Lombardi's first homer in the fifth inning was the first hit off Butcher; he hit his second in the seventh.

DODGERS LOSE TO CARDS

BROOKLYN, May 22.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers closed their home stand against western National League teams on a sour note when they lost under arc lights last night to the Cardinals, 4-0, for their third straight defeat before a gathering of 27,844.

Blix Donnelly, who had lost four in a row, registered his first success for the Cardinals and in blanking the home team held it to seven hits.

Southpaw Tom Seats started for the Dodgers and after five scoreless frames yielded two runs in the sixth, the tallies coming on a single by Dave Bartosch, a muff by Mickey Owen of Buster Adam's pop fly, a pass and a two-bagger by Whitey Kurowski. Donnelly doubled in the ninth off Curt Davis to score a run and a single by Bartosch produced the final St. Louis marker.

International League

MONTREAL, May 22.—(CP)—Royals went into undisputed possession of the first place in the International League Monday by whipping the Rochester Red Wings, 6-2, while the Jersey City Giants were idle.

Johnny Radler, who started for Rochester, was touched for all of the Royals, seven hits and six runs in the six innings he worked before giving way to Herman Neuberger in the seventh. Radler didn't pitch bad ball but he made mistakes with Roland Gladu and Red Durrett, each of whom hit homers out of the park with a teammate on base to account for four of the Royals' runs.

John Gabbard, on the mound for the Royals, pitched steady ball, to mark up his fifth win of the season.

KATZ POST FIRST VICTORY

SYRACUSE, N.Y., May 22.—(AP)—Relief Pitcher Bob Katz won his own game with an eighth inning single which scored Russ Kerns to break a tie and give Syracuse a 5-4 victory over Baltimore in a rubber game of their three-game International League series here last night.

Kerns was on third after his double and Olson's sacrifice and there were two out when Katz came through. Johnny Padgajny started for the Orioles, but was lifted for pinchhitter Tropea in the eighth and Tropea's hit drove in the tying run. The loss was charged to Rolland Vanslate, who hurled the eighth.

Frank Skaff's 10th home run, with one on in the fifth, gave the Birds a temporary lead in the see-saw game and helped drive Johnny Krall, Chiefs' starter, to the showers.

Vermilion School Will Open in Fall

Vermilion School of Agriculture will re-open some time in October, probably about the middle of the month, provincial department of agriculture officials said Tuesday.

The school was closed in 1941 and placed at the disposal of the department of national defence and used as a basic training centre for the CWAC. The army vacated the school last year.

Officials predict that about 150 students will enroll for the new school term. As there are no offices as yet at Vermilion, applications for enrolment are being handled at the department of agriculture here.

Northwood Will Race Big String At Calgary Meet

By LOU DAVIES

CALGARY, May 22—Ned Northwood, principal character in one of the real success stories of the turf, is going to race the biggest string he has ever handled when the 1945 prairie racing season opens at Victoria Park on Thursday.

Just a few years ago the Stavely gas station operator raced around the one-day "bush" meetings. Then he graduated to organized racing, first with the consistent campaigner Escostar.

Several years ago he claimed the good western bred mare Teeworth from Leo Bancroft for $1,000 and since then he has climbed into the upper brackets in the Canadian racing scene.

Last year he was sixth leading money-winning owner in all of Canada as his charges won 16 races, were 14 times second and nine times third to amass $12,783.

Heading the stable as she has done for the past several years is Teeworth, seven-year-old daughter of Papworth-Tee Hee. Two years ago she was leading money winning mare in all Canada with 11 victories, eight seconds and two thirds for a total of $11,945 in purses. Last year, raced sparingly, she won five events, including the $2,000 added Speers Handicap at Winnipeg and, in all, earned $5,020 during the season.

Today she ranks sixteenth among Canadian money-winners still racing with a record of 23 triumphs and $19,955 in purses.

Another in the Stavely stable is Ball and Chain, a superior mudder of handicap calibre, who also carried the Northwood silks last season to win three races as well as being five times second and three times third.

Houde Expects Future Trouble Between Allies

HAWKESBURY, Ont., May 22—(CP)—Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal, Bloc Populaire co-leader in the June 11 federal election, last night told an election rally here that "The situation in Europe is far from clear," and that "Who knows but that we might soon be asking our enemies of yesterday to take up arms with us against our Allies of today."

Speaking at an open-air rally in favor of Leandre Maisonneuve, Bloc Populaire candidate for Prescott, Mayor Houde spoke mainly in criticism of the Liberal leaders whom he accused of breaking promises "many times repeated" not to impose conscription in Canada.

The conscription issue was not dead, he said, for the war with Japan had barely started and "our soldiers had not returned from Europe—yet."

RECENT INCIDENT

Mayor Houde added: "An incident has occurred within the last few days which gave rise to uneasiness and showed that the situation in Europe was most unclear.

"Field Marshal Alexander (Allied commander in the Mediterranean theatre) issued a statement last Friday saying that Marshal Tito (Yugoslav leader) had acted in a manner pretty similar to the methods of countries against which we had been fighting.

"Tito said yesterday he had withdrawn his troops from Trieste, but no mention has been made of the withdrawal of New Zealand troops from the disputed section of Austria.

"Who knows but that we might soon be asking our enemies of yesterday to take up arms with us against our Allies of today."

Victoria Cross Is Awarded Two Gallant Canucks

pany through devastating fire after being thrice wounded.

His direction of his company, which eventually was reduced to 26 men, a quarter of its original strength, made possible the early breaching of the Hochwald forest defence line, last German bastion west of the Rhine.

DISREGARDED WOUNDS

Disregarding his severe wounds, Maj. Tilston led the fighting personally and refused to be evacuated until his objective had been taken and consolidated. Part of his citation reads:

"... On his last trip (to bring up supplies) he was wounded for a third time, this time in the leg. He was found in a shell crater beside the road. Although very seriously wounded and barely conscious, he would not submit to medical attention until he had given complete instructions as to the defence plan, had emphasized the absolute necessity of holding the position and had ordered his one remaining officer to take over . . ."

Sgt. Cosens, second Canadian below commissioned rank to win the V.C. in this war, single-handedly killed 20 Germans and rounded up 30 prisoners before the sniper shot him through the head.

TOOK OVER PLATOON

Sgt. Cosens had taken over the platoon when his officer was killed, and with four remaining men overcame fanatical resistance of an enemy strong-point, making possible the early capture by his regiment of the village of Mooshof. Success of the action was vital to the future operations of the brigade. He had taken over enemy strongpoints by cool dashes and shooting from the hip. The citation continues:

"... Single-handed he then entered the second and third buildings and personally killed or captured all the occupants, although under intense machine-gun and small arms fire. Just after the successful reduction of these important enemy strong-points, Sgt. Cosens was shot through the head by an enemy sniper and died almost instantly."

When word of the award reached Maj. Tilston's stenographer sisters—Jean Stanford, Mar.—in Toronto they were overjoyed, especially when they heard he would be out of hospital and home in a couple of months.

ALWAYS GOOD NATURED

They couldn't picture their six-foot, three-inch 190-pound brother, red-headed and freckled, as a desperate fighter. "I still can't imagine Fred getting mad at anyone, let alone killing people," said Josephine. "He was always so good natured and smiling."

They had read newspaper accounts of the Hochwald Forest action which mentioned their brother. "We sent some clippings from the papers to Fred," said Mary, "but he wrote us that he didn't recognize the action from the accounts. He intimated that he had been played up too much and that he did no more than any of the others."

At Lashenfield, Ont., Sgt. E. Cosens, a railwayman himself and a veteran of the First Great War, expressed a great pride in the posthumous award to his son.

"I knew he would be a good soldier," said Mr. Cosens, "but it is hard for me to realize that he has won the Victoria Cross. I still think of him as a kid."

Liberal Policy To Aid Change War to Peace

body. There are people who say we should have done some things differently."

"Canada's war effort has been equal if not superior to that of any other country, having regard to its size and what we were able to contribute," he said. This was the work of the people of Canada but had the effort failed the government would have been blamed.

Some people criticized old parties. No one criticized old churches, old army regiments.

DEPLORES NEW PARTIES

"I deplore that a lot of first class people are today joining new parties," he said. These peoples should get into one of the old parties, the one best suited to their inclinations and seek to make the party think the way they thought.

Social Credit speakers had been active in telling the people what a bad man Mackenzie King is. He was content to let his record stand. He had been before the public for a long time but he thought it indicated his opponents had a poor case when they had to resort to personal abuse.

"We have now reached agreement with the new president of the United States in the Dumbarton Oaks to get back into a peace-time condition of economy," said Mr. King, after outlining the growth of close relations and cooperation with the United States during the period of war.

"The government was not offering promises. After the last war soldiers had money but found their dollar went 40 or 50 cents. The government had established price control and kept up the purchasing power of the dollar.

STABLE FARM INCOMES

In addition to taking steps to avoid inflation the government had moved to assure stable farm incomes. Long-term contracts at fixed prices had been made with Britain for the sale of bacon and other products. They ensured against sudden slumps to the farmers due to sudden loss of markets.

Then as a further protection there was legislation to put a floor under farm prices. This was not a promise. It was on the statute books.

As another means of maintaining farm incomes and wages as well, purchasing power was being distributed through the assistance given to stricken Europe, through the millions to be spent on rehabilitation of refugees and also through family allowances and other social legislation.

Under the income tax law a man with an income of $5,000 was given tax exemption for his children. The man who had a small income got no aid from the state. Family allowances simply equalized things. They assured to all children a certain birth towards a healthy and happy life.

NEED FAMILIES

"Some people say there shouldn't be large families," he said. "Well what is going to happen to the state. Every state that is going to last needs to have strong and able bodied men and women. The state is being served by those who bring children into the world, also bring them up to be workers of the world."

The CCF promises a new social order. It would be well to ask whether they could get the support of the people for their policies. The Liberal government had a hard fight to get family allowances approved. There was bitter opposition from the Conservative party.

It would need millions of dollars but all that amounted to was a distribution of wealth, taking some from those who had much and giving it to those who need it to give children a good start in life.

Suspend Trading On Alberta Bonds

MONTREAL, May 22—(CP)—Bond brokers yesterday removed from their lists all two-pay Albertas. This action followed decision at Ottawa to ban export in these securities following the reaching of an agreement between the provincial authorities and a bondholders committee on refunding of the province's public debt.

Prior to the agreement being reached, Albertas worked up in some cases 16 points, largely on New York demand through local investment dealers.

Say Allies to Use Captured Fleets In Japan Invasion

LONDON, May 22—(Reuters)—Domei, the Japanese agency, claimed last night that Tokyo naval observers believe Britain and the United States are planning to use the German fleet in the invasion of the Japanese mainland.

Quoting a naval correspondent of the Tokyo newspaper, Asahi Shimbun, the agency said: "The American and British powers are scraping together what remains of the battle fleets of Germany, Italy and France and are hurriedly sending them to the Pacific to step up their invasion operations against Japan". This report is without Allied confirmation.

Windows Broken

A report that 25 windows had been broken in the premises of the Edmonton Badminton Club, 120 street, north of Jasper, during the week-end, was given city police on Tuesday by the secretary, J. F. Battersby. The club has been closed for the past few weeks.

"Bribery" Charged In Pacific Service

SINTALUTA, Sask., May 22.—(CP)—Canada's army policy for the Pacific is "bribery," said E. E. Perley, Progressive Conservative candidate for re-election in Qu'Apelle federal constituency, in a week-end address here.

Mr. Perley said that Prime Minister Mackenzie King's announcement that troops who had seen service in Europe and who volunteered for service in the Pacific would be given 30 days' leave at home and increases in pay, amounted to "bribery".

Defence Minister McNaughton, who is seeking election as a Liberal in Qu'Appelle, had said he did not want to see Canadians fighting too far from the Japanese in the jungle, equipped no better than the enemy, Mr. Perley said. He has been "surprised" at the minister's statement.

"Say, our chaps could lick a Jap or a German anywhere," Mr. Perley said.

Explore Plan Utilize North Housing Units

ing Ltd. and The City of Edmonton.

A further resolution passed calls for a change over from the present non-basement, bricked chimney type of construction, to full basements and chimneys that conform to the city building by-laws, be made as soon as possible in the contract now being carried out in connection with the first 100 of these homes, and that this type of construction be introduced when the other houses that comprise the agreement are being built.

Outlining the provincial government's proposal for the moving of 700 huts from Dawson Creek, Mr. Clash said the government was prepared to finance this project, charging three per cent for the money loaned.

The province would undertake dismantling the huts at Dawson Creek, loading them and shipping them to Edmonton, and if the huts were transported to the site by truck the province would deliver them to the sites designated by civic officials.

THE COST

The huts would be re-assembled under the direction of the city architect, Maxwell C. Dewar, who told council members that it would cost approximately $8,200 to re-erect them in multiples of four huts, and approximately $2,500 if erected as single units.

At a proposed rental of $26 monthly it would take approximately 16 years to repay for the initial outlay, and in the event of loss the province, according to Mr. Clash, was prepared to take over half of the amount to be written off against interest payments.

SELF-CONTAINED UNITS

The proposed accommodation units would be self-contained, and would have shower baths, toilets, sinks, hardwood floors, and for the most part would have two bedrooms. Some larger units would be constructed. They would be artistically finished on the outside, and the grounds would be suitably landscaped.

They would not have basements, but would be erected on concrete footings which would go down to the sub-soil. This would give a concrete base of from two to two and a half feet, Mr. Dewar stated.

City Commissioner John Hodgson was of the opinion that the three per cent interest rate asked by the government was too high, and that a rate of two per cent or less would be more appropriate with the prevailing interest rates on 10-year loans.

He also raised the question of taxes on these homes, pointing out that no taxes would be paid, even for school purposes.

WRITTEN REPORT

Ald. James H. Ogilvie expressed the opinion that a written report should be submitted to the council by the commissioners showing the cost to the city through non-payment of taxes, the cost to provide additional schools to meet the projects' requirements, and other like matters. He said it was not advisable to make a decision on a verbal report, and asked that a written report showing all angles of the proposal be submitted.

After home discussion council unanimously approved the following resolution moved by Ald. J. M. Douglas:

"That the City Commissioners be authorized to negotiate for submission to council an agreement with the provincial government for moving 100 'CCC huts' from Dawson Creek to building sites in Edmonton, to be selected by the city, and that the city then proceed with the erection and improvement of these buildings into suitable for the emergency housing of returned veterans.

"The provincial government to finance the whole initial outlay at a reasonable rate of interest, and to assume some responsibility in any ultimate loss resulting from the project."

Berlin Residents Return to City

From CP, AP and BUP Dispatches

BERLIN, May 22—Berliners who fled the flaming capital during the last phases of the Russian advance and took to the surrounding countryside are beginning to come back.

Berlin streets today are jammed by returning residents arriving in carts, wagons, on bicycle and afoot. Small carts pulled by men and women are piled high with household effects which were salvaged during the exodus, but the majority of the former residents of the city are arriving to find their homes have no home left in which to settle down.

Twenty Russian administrative districts have been set up in the ruined capital, the last of which, 2,000,000 Berliners have registered with the Russians. More than 4,000,000 lived in Berlin before the Russian invasion.

All the returning Germans appear to be well supplied with food for the moment, and farmers in the surrounding districts are carrying on as usual, so that for the time being at least, the food situation is not serious. However a bad situation may develop during the winter, as Germany will have to rely solely on her own efforts for food during the next year at least.

Election Reforms Needed in Canada Says Solon Low

MONTREAL, May 22.—(CP)—Hon. Solon E. Low, Social Credit national leader, last night told a neighboring Verdun election meeting that electoral reform was necessary "to rid Canada of the vicious party machine control which denies our people true democracy."

He said he challenged "social debtor" parties, which he identified as Liberal, Progressive Conservative, CCF and Labor-Progressive, to "get down to details and show the people how they are going to give them a full employment they talk about."

Reinforcement Charges Hurled By Army Padre

was a captain with pull . . . Why should it take prestige and pull to meet human need?"

Canadian forces were short of manpower from the day of landing in Sicily, in July, 1943. In the battle at Ortona in December, 1943, "We were short of men going in and during the battle my regiment lost 80 per cent. of its fighting strength.

"They sent us some reinforcements days late and time and time again odds and ends of partly trained men who were scraped up around the reinforcement depot."

"I have the names and records, given to me by the man . . . who couldn't handle the weapons upon which their lives depended. These were the men they put in against crack German paratroopers . . . Do you wonder we are burned with the injustice of it and that the Liberal party would like to forget around the whole thing?"

SITUATION FARCIAL

". . . By the time a year had gone the situation was almost farcial and in the Gothic line we used to say, 'When we get up to half strength we'll put on an attack.'

"At the Davaio river on Jan. 4, 1945, Sgt. Bennett of the Seaforths, who was shot through the chest and abdomen, told me . . . he wasn't fair sir, they sent us in with only half enough men in our company."

"A field officer of a western infantry regiment fighting in France at the same time told me that in Holland it was the same with them. . . ."

Maj. Bailey said the reason men couldn't get home after four and five years away from their families was very simple—they hadn't left men to let them get away. And they knew that as far back as February, 1944, because I have a letter signed by Ralston (former Defence Minister Ralston) addressed to me saying this . . ."

American 1st Army Is Going to Pacific

WASHINGTON, May 22.—AP)—The United States 1st Army, which played a prominent part in cracking Germany's west front, is headed for the Pacific war, the war department announced last night. The outfit is commanded by Gen. Courtney H. Hodges.

Security Meet Gives Approval To Amendments

cational and other matters as well as economic—Mr. Graydon announced the Canadian delegation had withdrawn the amendment.

The committee, which rarely demonstrates either approval or disapproval, applauded this move. George Tomlinson of the British delegation said he was sure that countries of major strategic importance would be on the council in any event.

Lines were drawn today for a committee vote on the contentious question of veto power—requiring an affirmative vote by the "Big Five" on enforcement measures in the security council of the world organization being formed.

Speechmaking ended yesterday and a vote will be taken at the next meeting of the committee studying the question, probably Tuesday, with indications that the Yalta formula to which the Big Five are adhering will be accepted by a two-thirds majority.

STAND BY CANADA

Canada is expected to line up with Australia whose amendment weakening the veto powers of the Big Five as laid down in the Dumbarton Oaks agreement is the point at issue.

All the countries have indicated a readiness to accept the Big Five veto power on enforcement measures that may be proposed in the 11-state security council. But they have refused to accept its extension to attempts at conciliation of disputes—particularly disputes in which a member of the Big Five is not directly concerned.

The conference yesterday set June 2 as a tentative date for winding up its task, hoping all committee work this week and go into open sessions next week for approval of the charter section by section as drafted.

School Students Score in Play

Members of the Dramatics Club of St. Mary's High school outdid themselves in their performance on Saturday night at the Empire theatre of the three-act comedy "Lunacies at Large." The presentation was witnessed by a full house.

The plot revolved around a few bits of Chinese philosophy, a blustering detective, a gunshot crime, a quartet of "mental cases" and some realistic thunder and lightning, tied together by a profusion of realism and interlaced with spontaneous "High school crowd" humor.

Congratulations are due both the players and those behind the scenes.

Taking part were Bob Turnbull, Elaine Sauvant, Joan Sweeney, Marie Devaney, Betty Prentice, Laudie Bodnarchuk, Jocelyne Blais and Gerald DePraine.

Director was Laurier Picard.

Costumes and properties were in charge of Geraldine Fitzgerald, Rose Mary Farion and Una O'Connor.

Also assisting were Bill Irwin, Bill Prentice, Orest Kruk, Estelle Dubois, Bernice Beaton, Sheila O'Neill, Mona Daly, June Lovette, Carolyn Shirreffs, Stella Comeau, Sheila McCurdy, Shirley Rowley, Pauline Love, Theresa Murina and Frances Gardiner.

Members of the orchestra were L. Brodner, E. Grazely, G. Ego, V. Hayrock, F. Wesolowski, R. Olsen, N. Dickie, T. McHale, D. Kaminsik, W. Chmilar and M. Adamson.

City Commissioners Tuesday continued conversations with George A. Clash, director in charge of purchases for the provincial government, in connection with the moving of huts from Dawson Creek, B.C. to be used for temporary emergency accommodation for ex-servicemen here.

Following a conference at the Civic Block, Commissioner R. J. Gibb, and Mr. Clash conferred with Arthur Arnold, representative of the National Housing Act administration.

City Commissioner John Hodgson is examining the financial aspects of the provincial government's proposal, and it is expected that a report will be ready for city council next Monday on the result of the negotiations.

Airman Resumes Civil Life After 4 Years as Prisoner

After spending more than four years in prisoner of war camps in Germany, Flt. Lt. Donald S. Thom, son of Mrs. Hannah Thom, 10222 118 street, arrived back in Edmonton Monday and is looking forward to spending the summer at one of his favorite spots, the west-end swimming pool.

FLT.-LT. DONALD S. THOM

Tuesday afternoon Flt. Lt. Thom started working as a life guard at the pool where he took part in so many galas and won the reputation of being one of Edmonton's best swimmers and divers.

Thin, but tanned and healthy looking, the airman said it was "really wonderful" to be home again and he was greatly impressed by the development of the Edmonton airport which he has already been out to see.

He was shot down over France and taken prisoner May 25, 1940, and was held in Germany, passing through four different camps until he was repatriated in September, 1944.

Born and educated in Edmonton, the airman attended Royal Military College at Kingston, where he took a military engineering course. Later he took Flying at Camp Borden and in 1937 went to England and enlisted in the RAF.

He had high praise for the work of the Red Cross in the prisoner of war camps. Long hours in Britain were filled with sports which the prisoners organized and with reading and studying courses which were supplied by the Red Cross.

Returning to the United Kingdom last September, Flt. Lt. Thom spent a six months' stay in a hospital where he said repatriated prisoners were given a lot of interesting lectures by eminent professors from the various universities there. He said they discussed the post-war problems of reconstruction in Britain as well as in the countries of Europe, comparing various economic, educational and political setups of the different nations.

He has a high regard for the people of the British Isles and said they are all looking forward to their first holiday since the war began which they'll be having this summer.

The airman is staying with his mother.

Alterations in Polling Areas Will Be Talked

Changes in the boundaries of municipal polling divisions will be considered by a special committee of the city council at a meeting to be held probably on Friday.

At a recent meeting of the city council the question of revision of the municipal poll set-up was discussed, and City Clerk Alfred Russell, who is returning officer, and Thomas Walker, city assessor, were instructed to prepare a revision of the poll boundaries.

AN INCREASE

It is understood there will be a substantial increase in the number of polls in the outlying districts of the city. Recently, when the taking of the civic census started, Mr. Walker opened the canvass in the downtown areas, because it was not considered expedient to make any changes in the poll boundaries in these districts.

Aldermen at the council meeting expressed the opinion that the outlying polls were too big, and that electors had too far to walk to the polling stations.

It was stated that the distance at which the polling stations in these polls were placed from the extremes of the poll boundary might have some effect on the small vote cast in recent municipal elections.

The regular meeting of the finance committee will be held Wednesday afternoon, and on Friday the by-laws committee meeting will be held. A light agenda is scheduled for the former meeting, but a number of contentious items are listed for disposal at the by-laws meeting.

City Golf Revenue Totals $3,821.75

Revenue from the municipal golf links since the start of the 1945 season totals $3,821.75, with Sunday, May 20, being the highest day since the opening on March 25 last. On Sunday last the total collected was $169.75.

The city owned swimming pools since the opening on Saturday last have chalked up a cash total of $750.00 from 3,027 patrons. This is considered a satisfactory start to the season by engineer's department officials. They say that the unseasonable weather for the first two days kept attendance at the pools down.

Work gangs from the city engineer's department are busy improving the greens and fairway at the municipal links.

Gyro Playgrounds Will Open May 24

Official opening of the three Gyro playgrounds in the city will take place Thursday, May 24. Special ceremonies to mark the occasion will be held at 10:30 a.m. at Patricia Park, 95 street and 108A avenue.

An added attraction to the official opening this year will be a performance by the Edmonton Schoolboys' band under the direction of Bandmaster T. V. Newlove.

A softball game between a team of Edmonton Gyros and a boys' team from the Patricia park district will be played.

The Gyro club has again obtained the services of last year's supervisors for the three parks, Patricia, Tipton and Kitchener. The public is invited to attend the opening on Thursday.

THE QUESTION

What do you think of the results obtained by the tuberculosis clinic here?

THE ANSWERS

TOM FASSETT, clerk: It is a matter over which all concerned may feel satisfied that 34,492 persons have received examinations at the clinic. That figure itself speaks eloquently for the worth of the organization.

SID BISSETT, traveller: The results have shown the necessity for such a clinic and have been the means of identifying those whose condition was such as to spread tuberculosis in the community. Therefore, I would say the results have been most valuable.

GORDON THOMPSON, mechanic: This clinic, as well as any other clinic that has as its objective the improvement of health and living conditions is filling an important role in our life. Those in charge deserve praise for the results obtained.

Firemen Attend Total 449 Fires

Edmonton's firemen have travelled approximately 1,500 miles from Jan. 1 to April 30, 1945, attending 449 fires, and during 1944 they travelled a total of 38,379.8 miles while answering 868 alarms.

Chief victims of fire in the four months period of this year was grass and bush fires, and in the tabulation of alarms during 1944 this type of fire accounted for 318 of the total alarms.

April was the heaviest month last year for alarms, and this year the month was no exception to the general rule. Eighty per cent of the alarms turned in during April this year were to attend grass and bush fires.

Loss sustained by fire during 1944 totalled $295,045.15, practically all of which was covered by insurance.

Alberta to Guard Soldier Interests

The Alberta government will do everything it can to prevent exploitation of returned service personnel purchasing homes in this province, Hon. W. A. Fallow, acting premier, stated Tuesday.

Mr. Fallow's attention had been called to the announced intention of the Edmonton branch of the Canadian Legion to bring details of transactions between an Edmonton real estate firm and returned service personnel and dependents, before the attorneys-general of the province and federal and municipal authorities. Other cases of alleged profiteering had also been cited.

"Rest assured that the Alberta government will do everything possible to prevent exploitation and victimizing of returned service personnel or their dependents. I am without specific details of the cases mentioned and it would appear there are legal aspects to the cases involved. That would make the matter one for our legal advisors", Mr. Fallow stated.

Remand Three Men For Court Sentence

Three Edmonton men, found guilty in supreme court Tuesday by Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald on a charge of attempting to break and enter the McLeod dispensary, were remanded in custody until Friday for sentence.

The accused, William Tymoschuk, Stanley Smith and Morris Gordon, were arrested by city police on April 8 last, as they descended the McLeod building stairs. An alarm had been turned into the police station by the head janitor of the building after he had heard noises on the fifth floor.

Crown witnesses testified to finding a "jimmy" on the floor, and marks of the instrument on the door leading into the dispensary.

Mrs. Casselman Speaks

Urges Committee to Revise Rehabilitation Legislation

Mrs. Cora T. Casselman, Liberal candidate for Edmonton East in the forthcoming Dominion general election, Monday night advocated appointment early in the next session of Parliament of a representative committee to study the Dominion's rehabilitation regulations and legislation.

Speaking in the National Hall to open her campaign, Mrs. Casselman called for nomination to that committee of delegates from the ranks of each of Canada's armed services, together with speakers for veterans' organizations, and members of Parliament who are themselves war veterans. About 100 persons attended.

"The Liberal party has many veterans of both the last war and this war amongst its candidates," she said. The benefit of their experience as veterans, and as members of Parliament, should be given such a committee as she suggests.

Mrs. Casselman felt that the committee should meet in frequent consultation to see how the Canadian rehabilitation provisions are working out in actual practice, to make improvements where they are necessary, and to make suggestions that would prove valuable in post-war years.

EXTRA ASSISTANCE

Additional help, the speaker urged, should be given by the dependents' board of trustees, in cases where ex-servicemen and women can be assisted in times of sickness and other emergencies. The work of that board should be extended, she added, to cover dependents of veterans receiving benefits during vocational and educational training.

Mrs. Casselman commented that the board already had given excellent service. She felt that she had personally contributed to its efficiency, that its value had been proved and that its work should be continued.

Mrs. Casselman said that "our fighters will be returned in greater numbers and it is even more important to understand the provisions made for their re-establishment." She said that Canada had pioneered in the field of veterans' rehabilitation, with monetary benefits as high or higher than in any other country, the United States included.

MRS. CORA T. CASSELMAN

MORE CONSIDERATION

"There is still need for more consideration of the program, however," she declared.

Mrs. Casselman was introduced by Miss Mary Scullion, president of the Twentieth Century Club, and in her address she briefly reviewed her party's hand on the road to European victory.

She paid tribute to the men whose "devotion, courage and self-sacrifice have given us victory in the European field."

HOME FRONT WORKERS

"On the home front," she said, "industrial workers, farmers and many others in a great variety of ways have supported loyally the combat forces. Men and women have shared the struggle in a

Housebreaking a Man Takes Tact, Hard Work

Man's Vanity Is Hurt When Wife Attempts to Change Him; a Woman Trying to Change a Man Thus Plays With Fire

Can a wife teach the man to whom she is married how to be a good husband? That is the $64 question a girl asks who is contemplating marrying a young man who has various and sundry habits, peculiarities and quirks of character to which she is allergic.

Millions of optimistic little tweeties think that after they are married they will only have to teach Friend Husband a few parlor tricks to turn him into the husband of their dreams, that it will be no trouble at all to make him change his opinions, beliefs, manners and customs, and like it. Yet housebreaking a husband is just as dangerous a feat as lion taming and ranks among the most hazardous occupations that a woman can undertake.

Of course, there are men who are born good husbands. They are domestic by nature, with no impulse to revert to the wild. Their eyes never roam from their Marias. Their feet never wander away from their own firesides. They have a passion for washing dishes and consider it a privilege to take Junior out in his pram. They turn their pay envelopes over to their wives and never forget birthdays or anniversaries.

HE-ANGELS SCARCE

Unfortunately, these he-angels are scarce as hens' teeth. The average man isn't instinctively a good husband. He has to be "learned", as children say, to be one, and it takes years of bribery, coaxing and bulldozing for a wife to train her husband to eat out of her hand.

As a matter of fact, the only person who can teach a man to be a good husband is his mother. He resents his wife's efforts to change him, because that hurts his vanity. He thinks that she should consider him God's gift to her just as he is. Also being a man, he doesn't know what a woman wants in a husband and often when he is trying hardest to please his wife, he gets most on her nerves.

But every woman knows what every other woman wants in a husband, and if Mom began while little Johnny's mind was soft and plastic, she could mold him into the sort of a husband who is every woman's heart's desire. She could teach him that what every wife craves above all earthly things is for her husband to treat her as a Lady Love and that just as long as he tells her that she is the most beautiful and wonderful creature in the world, she will be perfectly happy, although he may starve her and she may have to work her fingers to the bone to support him.

She could teach him that the way to correct a wife's faults is to praise her virtues. If he brags about her cooking, she will make a burnt offering of herself on the kitchen stove concocting dainties for him to eat. If he boasts of what a good manager she is, she will pinch every penny. And she could teach him that as long as he kisses his wife's eyes and lips, she will never see his faults nor nag him about his shortcomings.

Every mother could teach her son to be a good husband. But she doesn't.

THESE WOMEN—"Migosh, George—didn't you make it clear to Aunt Ellie that the hat you picked up in Paris for her was only a SOUVENIR?"

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

ONE-HORSE-AND-BUGGY DOCTOR

For some years I have assumed that you were really a specialist, a health specialist of the top rank (writes a pastor), but read in your column today "I am not a food specialist, just an ordinary doctor." If your readers are to believe this what are they to conclude about your criticisms of other doctors, especially those who are specialists? I have followed some of your suggestions in preference to ideas of personal physicians . . . . but unless you are qualified as a competent specialist, beyond the "ordinary," there is not wisdom in either following your advice or reading it, and I, for one, would like to know the fact, if your modesty will permit you to state if for the benefit of one who has been an admirer.

(Signed ...., Pastor .... Church)

My modesty boggles at no such trifle, sir. The fact is, as I have tried always to make every one understand, that I am a plain, ordinary, plodding one-horse-and-buggy type of doctor.

As for being a specialist—perhaps, sir, you have a naive notion of what constitutes a specialist. In medicine a specialist is an ordinary doctor who devotes himself and perhaps limits his practice to certain diseases. Neither by law nor by custom does a specialist necessarily surpass the doctor who does general practice, in knowledge or skill. Of course, after years of practice in his limited field a specialist may and should be somewhat more capable of diagnosing and treating unusual cases in that field, but even then, always with the aid and counsel of the patient's family physician.

I'm afraid, sir, that you may be one of the large numbers of simple, trusting folk who think "specialists" are super-doctors and hence that one is smart if he passes by the "ordinary" doctor and goes straight to a "specialist" when he needs medical advice or treatment.

The only real specialist, my dear ex-admirer, is the doctor who has engaged in general practice for at least ten years, found his particular bent or interest, pursued a serious course of post-graduate training in that field, and then finally announced that his practice is limited to that field.

A real specialist depends almost exclusively upon the medical practitioners in his community for patients—the doctors recognize his ability and refer difficult cases or call him in consultation.

I'm sorry, reverend sir, but the only specialty I could possibly claim as my own is Preventive Medicine. Or I might settle for Personal Health—in fact, I suppose I have been practicing Preventive Medicine and Personal Health in my way for years. Would that be an inducement to you to stick with us for a while longer, sir?

Debunker

The old rule that "two pints make one quart" is true when you use two pints of water or anything else, but when you take one pint of one thing and one pint of another thing and mix them, it does not always hold true. Thus, if you take a pint of alcohol and a pint of water and pour them together you get considerably less than a quart of liquid. The reason is that alcohol is soluble in water and part of it is absorbed into water, thus decreasing the volume of the mixture.

U.S. General Killed

MANILA, May 22.—(AP)—Brig. Gen. James L. Dalton, 35, one of the youngest generals in the United States army, was killed May 16 by a Japanese sniper near Balete Pass on northern Luzon island, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced yesterday.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

The bewilderment a mother feels when her small child asks for the first time about his own origin, is a universal one.

For, despite one's firm conviction that a child should be told the truth and not some fanciful prevarication, the actual words do not come easily to parents. They are certain to wonder not only about what should be said but how much should be told.

When a parent asks, "Shall I tell the child everything about conception and childbirth when he asks this question?" the answer is no.

The child couldn't understand all of this complex subject, his curiosity might be whetted instead of satisfied and he isn't interested. That is the chief thing. All he wants to know when he says, "Where did you get me, Mommy?" is where did she get him. That question is easy enough to answer and that is all the child wants to know.

He won't be put off long with such evasions as, "I got you at the hospital," and the parent digs a dozen pitfalls for herself when she says so. Neither will he be satisfied for many years with , "God sent you to us."

We all acknowledge the Fatherhood of God without in any way discounting the purely physical way in which children are born into this world. It is the latter mystery about which children feel interest. It is that which they want to know when they ask this particular or a similar question.

Good taste should play a part in what and how the parent educates her children about sex. Good taste has no influence upon other children when they impart the knowledge they have picked up. Their version and misinterpretation of information may leave ineradicable scars on sensitive children.

No child of whom I have ever heard in years of advising parents has ever reacted unhappily to sound information given by parents and none of them has shown any unwholesome or lascivious interest in the subject of sex steming from such enlightenment.

They have all accepted what they were told with the utmost nonchalance. "So that's the way it is?" said one young man of five. "I always wondered."

In due time other questions will be asked and will need to be answered. If the mother has begun the clarification of the subject honestly she will continue in that spirit. To do that she needs information herself and a thorough understanding of her own emotions so she won't let them get in the way. It's never easy, but education never is.

Our leaflet, "Sex Education," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Ninety Volunteer For Pacific Fight

VANCOUVER, May 22.—(CP)—Approximately 90 civilians have joined the army in Pacific command and volunteered for duty in the war against Japan since V-E Day, army public relations disclosed yesterday. "All persons who come to volunteer for the army now are asked if they will also volunteer for Pacific duty," an army public relations officer said.

Say Experience Is Great Asset In Government

OTTAWA, May 22.—(CP)—The political action committee of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada in a letter to officers and members of trade councils, made public last night, said those with experience in administering the change from peace to war had gained valuable experience to meet the problems of transition back to peace.

The letter was signed by Ernest Ingles of London, Ont., chairman of the recently-formed political action committee. Most of the Congress unions are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

The letter made no mention of political parties by name and said the declaration was not intended to detract from the election of any person belonging to a Congress-affiliated union whose election would be an acquisition to the cause of labor.

The 800-word letter said there had been mistakes made in failure to fully consult labor in the early stages of the war but this situation had later improved. Price control had been effective in checking inflationary conditions experienced in the First Great War.

SUPPORT WAGE CONTROL

"Wage control had its faults, which were developed during the beginning," the letter continued. "However, it can be said that wage control, as it developed, was not the worst thing that could have happened to workers of this country."

On national unity the letter said: "No great faith can be placed in any group who has no greater claim to fame than the destruction of national unity."

"We are placed in the position of being called upon to determine who can implement those promises best—those who know the reason for the dislocation, or those who could only guess at the reason but who are not in possession of the facts and experience.

"Those who made those pledges must be given the opportunity to redeem them. They are charged with that responsibility . . . there is a danger that some new group, put into power at this time, would institute policies that might have no relation whatever to the pledges that an overwhelming number of people in this country have put their faith in."

The Canadian Congress of Labor, most of whose unions are affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organization, has endorsed the CCF as "the political arm of labor."

CCL Urges Support For CCF Candidates In Ontario Election

TORONTO, May 22.—(CP)—In a statement following a week-end executive meeting here, the Ontario Federation of Labor (CCL) called on its 150,000 members to support the CCF in the forthcoming elections. Another resolution, apparently aimed at executive members of the CCL running in opposition to the CCF, said the Federation executive "deplores the action of any Congress unions or leaders who attempt to thwart the policy of the Congress" and urged that necessary disciplinary action be taken.

Soviet to Guide New Czech Army

LONDON, May 22 — (AP) — Czechoslovakia, turning to Soviet Russia for aid and guidance, will establish a new Soviet-trained and equipped army of undisclosed size, the Czech news bureau announced last night. The announcement emphasized Russia's new westward influence among the smaller nations once welded by France into the pre-war "Cordon Sanitaire". Plans for the army were disclosed on the heels of the return to Prague of President Benes who, with other members of the government, has spent several weeks in Moscow.

Premier Raps Policies of All Other Parties

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., May 22—(CP)—Premier Ernest Manning speaking before a Social Credit party compaign rally here last night denounced the policies of all other federal parties, which he said would attempt to bring a post-war prosperity to the Dominion without making a change in the old financial system which had proven itself to be inadequate in pre-war years. The Social Credit party alone is advocating a new financial system, one which would assure a real prosperity, he declared.

John H. Blackmore, Social Credit candidate for the Lethbridge constituency and sitting member, also spoke at the rally.

The basic problem to be solved before Canadians will be able to enjoy prosperity after the war is two-fold, Premier Manning said. First: It will be in the field of distribution, which requires a national income which will be distributed so that it assures a secure standard of living to each citizen of the Dominion; secondly: It all required a national income that is great enough to buy the entire production of the country, or the equivalent in traded goods.

If either or both of these conditions are not fulfilled the old pre-war conditions will prevail again, he said.

The economic set-up of today is exactly the same as that of pre-war days. Every fundamental principle has been retained. Conditions appear changed because of the effect that the war has had upon this economy. However, when these unusual war conditions subside the old economy will turn out to be just as it was before the conflict, Premier Manning said. "It is the same old financial racket being preserved."

The Social Credit party knows how to solve these vital problems, he declared.

This is one of a series of hands from the recent World's Championship Masters' Individual Tournament.

Al Weiss of Chicago, Life Master No. 31, has long been recognized as one of the outstanding players of the west. He finished second in this year's World Championship Masters' Individual, and after five sessions of play, was only one-half point out of first place.

Pass	1 N. T.	Pass	Pass
2 ♣	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening—♦ 4. 22

Some of us are not inclined to place much importance on a part score hand, but Weiss certainly handled the play of this hand well to get his eight tricks in.

He won the opening lead in dummy with the ace and immediately ruffed the deuce of diamonds. Now he took three rounds of hearts and ruffed the third diamond.

A club was led which West won with the ten spot. West at this point made a nice play. He cashed the king and ace of clubs and exited with the king of diamonds. Weiss ruffed this with his last club and now led a small spade towards the ten. West was forced to win and concede South a spade trick, which gave him his eighth trick.

Points for Parents

Mother: "I'm putting such things as empty spools and bits of ribbon in this drawer for baby and locking the other drawers until he can learn which ones are mine and which are his."

Mother: "No, no; Don't pull out that drawer! There! Just see what you did. . . . I slap baby's hands all day long and he goes right on pulling out my machine drawers and spilling things."

We accomplish little when we attempt to teach baby property rights by a continuous and antagonism-arousing fight.

Asks Committee To Make Study Rehabilitation

greater degree than ever before in any war."

She referred to the United Nations Conference at San Francisco which she had attended as a member of the Canadian delegation. She said: "Victory has made possible the gathering of delegates of 48 nations at San Francisco, from which we hope so much . . . even getting representatives together in conference is a step towards setting up a new organization. It shows willingness to co-operate." As a Canadian delegate, she felt a tremendous desire to find common ground for agreement.

She said that victory has meant that the United Nations, and not Hitler, have set down the terms of peace. But she drew attention to the fact that winning the war in a military sense must be followed by winning the peace by so working together that another war becomes impossible. "We must find the balance between our rights and the rights of others and that should be based on justice and international law".

EDMONTON'S PART

Reviewing the part that Edmonton has taken in the Canadian war effort, she cited the establishment of military and veterans' hospitals here. She recalled that she had kept before her the well-being of the men and women in uniform and those who had been the result partly of her efforts. She added that lower railway fares and increased pay for women in the services had been urged with considerable success.

EMPLOYMENT IS NEED

Returning to the subject of rehabilitation, she declared that employment was the answer to the problems of men on discharge. Many measures had been adopted in order to increase the numbers at work. As an example, the department of reconstruction had been set up under the minister Hon. C. D. Howe, whose five-pronged plan called for the employment of 800,000 more workers than in 1939; increase in export trade to 60 per cent above the pre-war value; substantial reduction in taxation; development of conservation and natural resources; and construction of 50,000 housing units in this first year of European victory, with rapid production of building material to make 100,000 new houses each year.

By such means, Mrs. Casselman said, employment and prosperity would be increased. She declared that Edmonton's members of parliament had been instrumental in assisting city authorities to get Wartime Housing in operation here.

"But we want not only jobs, but value for the money earned," Mrs. Casselman stated. "A sound financial policy has kept the cost of living down to an increase of only 18 per cent where the increase in the Great War was about 74 per cent on the average. The Canadian dollar now buys more goods than any other such amount of money. Volunteer efforts of many women through well-organized groups have been a large factor in preventing inflation."

SOCIAL SERVICES

Social services had been increased during the war period. She cited Unemployment Insurance, the National Physical Fitness Bill and Family Allowances. She referred to such other measures as the National Housing Act, the Agricultural Prices Support Act, the Fisheries Prices Support Act, the Industrial Development Bank Act, the Farm Improvement Act and the Exports Credits Insurance Act.

"Canada, like the rest of the countries of the world, will find the translation period from war to peace an unsettled one," she remarked.

"But if we have strong, experienced men at the head of affairs, we will come through with less disturbances of our everyday affairs. You know who the men are who will be in the Liberal cabinet. Do you know who will be in the cabinet of any other political party? Do you want to trust your affairs to inexperienced men, or to men whose theories have not been tried out? Think it over carefully."

The chairman was P. T. O'Connor. Mrs. Casselman's campaign manager, Ex-Alderman George A.

6,000 Ontario Men Might Vote West Provinces

Approximately 6,000 servicemen from Ontario, stationed in the three prairie provinces, are qualified to vote in the Ontario provincial elections of June 4 next, chief returning officers for service personnel voting in that province revealed here Tuesday.

D. A. Chisholm and Dr. J. K. Latchford, the returning officers, are in Edmonton, where they have opened an office in the Edmonton Motors Building, in preparation for the voting.

Mr. Chisholm visited the Alberta Legislative Buildings Tuesday where he made arrangements to borrow 80 ballot boxes from Clerk of the Legislative Assembly Robert Andison.

SIMILAR SYSTEM

A similar system to that used by service personnel in the last provincial elections in Alberta will be used, with the men voting for candidates in the constituencies where their homes are situated.

Dr. Latchford was medical health officer at No. 4 Initial Training School of the RCAF in Edmonton for some time.

River Reopened By China Forces

CHUNGKING, May 22.—(BUP)—Chinese forces have reopened the Min river from the East China Sea to a point 40 miles above Foochow, the Chinese Central News Agency said today. A CNA dispatch from Nanping said five steamers were en route to Paisha, 40 miles up stream from Foochow, with personnel for the Chinese post office, telegraph office and several banks.

Campbell, in a few remarks, declared that John Bracken, national leader of the Progressive Conservative party) was "going no place. No matter who is going places, he is going no place." Mr. Campbell said this was his impression in the light of informal discussions on politics held with Canadians in hotels, railway trains and other meeting places.

Building New CKUA Studios Minister Says

Broadcasting studios for CKUA, the former University of Alberta radio station, now under the control of the Alberta government, will be established on the top floor of the Provincial Building, 101A avenue and 100A street, Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works and telephones, announced Tuesday.

Mr. Fallow said work on remodelling the rooms, formerly occupied by the provincial income tax department, would commence as soon as materials can be secured. He said the actual work should not take more than two weeks.

CONSIDER TRANSFER

In the meantime a letter has been received from Ottawa stating that the recent application for a commercial broadcasting license and transfer of the existing station license from the University of Alberta to the Alberta provincial department of telephones, will be taken up at an early meeting of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation board of governors.

The facilities to be used by the station for studios and control rooms became available as a result of shuffling around of various departments and the fact the provincial income tax departments has virtually wound up its work, the minister said.

There will be two studios, sound proofed, a control room and a general waiting room.

The studios will be fully modern and it is likely that a staff of about 25 will be employed after the station goes into operation, Mr. Fallow said.

Walker Blake, formerly of Edmonton Station CJCA, recently was appointed manager of CKUA.

Give 2 Concerts Ukrainian Hall

Celebrating the return of the Ukrainian Labor Temple to its owners, and its dedication as a cultural centre for Canadian-Ukrainians, concerts were held Sunday afternoon and evening.

Sponsored jointly by the Ukrainian Canadian Association and the Ukrainian Labor Farmer Temple Association the festivities were greeted by two large audiences.

The string orchestra and chorus of the Ukrainian Canadian Association, garbed in native dress under the direction of Miss Edna Tarabas, presented a program of Ukrainian folk music, which was supported with solos by Dolly and Zenia Thachuk, Olga Iwanchuk, Nina Thachuk and Kay Shavlinsky.

Speakers representing various city organizations greeted the opening as a worthy enterprise for building the spirit of goodwill and unity of Ukrainians with the people of Canada. Speakers included Robert Muir, secretary of the Red Cross; Mrs. William Rowan, secretary of the Council for Canadian Unity; Jan Lakeman, vice-president of the Edmonton Council of Canadian Congress of Labor; Ald. H. D. Ainlay, Dr. Mary Hunter and P. Krachuk of the National Committee Ukrainian Canadian Association, Toronto.

About $2,500.00 was donated by those present toward further development of cultural and educational activities.

Plan Inquiry on South Gas Rates

An order-in-council of the provincial government has authorized reference to the Alberta appeal court on the question of an inquiry on the rates to be charged for natural gas to consumers from the Turner Valley field.

Legal counsel had raised the issue of whether or not one member of a two-men board appointed to investigate has power to continue the inquiry alone.

The inquiry is being carried out by the Natural Gas Utilities board.

Members of the board are G. M. Blackstock, KC, chairman and Dr. E. H. Boomer, chairman of the petroleum and natural gas conservation board. Mr. Blackstock is public utilities commissioner for Alberta.

Dr. Boomer had been absent for two short periods and the chairman absent for two hours on another occasion, according to the order. Dr. Boomer is now in Europe and will be away for at least a month.

The appeal action is being taken despite the fact the Natural Gas Utilities Act provides that a member of the board who is present shall have all the powers and jurisdiction of the board.

Levant Political Crisis Is Moving Toward Showdown

LONDON, May 22.—(BUP)—The new political crisis in the Levant moved toward a showdown today as Syrian and Lebanese leaders demanded immediate withdrawal of French troops from their territories. Dispatches from the Middle East said spokesmen for the two former French mandates accused France of trying to impose military and economic demands on Syria and Lebanon by force of arms. Syrian Foreign Minister Jemil Mardam told a meeting of Parliament in Damascus yesterday that French troops had been sent into the Levant to enforce demands for naval bases in Lebanon, air bases in Syria, and "most favored nation" treatment in the economic field.

SURVIVOR.— AB. Louis E. Kabesh (SD), 13135 59 street, who was among the survivors of HMCS Skeena which was driven ashore at Iceland in a fierce gale last October. He enlisted at HMCS 'Nonsuch Sept. 30, 1943. Born here, he attended Victoria High School, and prior to enlistment was on the staff of the Great Western Garment Company. He was married on his last leave and his wife lives at the above address.

Fallow Confident City to Accept

Acting Premier Hon. W. A. Fallow said Tuesday he was confident the Edmonton city council would accept the offer of the Alberta government to advance $800,000 for the purchase of some 100 former army huts at Dawson Creek to be converted into 400 suites.

"An agreement is being worked out between George Clash, provincial purchasing agent, and the city commissioners. I feel sure a satisfactory agreement will be reached on the financial points raised," Mr. Fallow said.

The minister said the Alberta government is most anxious to help solve the desperate plight of Edmontonians seeking housing accomodation.

"It was not primarily our responsibility and I feel the Alberta government did much more than it was actually obliged to do. The all-important thing, however, is to relieve the serious housing situation," the minister concluded.

Income Tax Theme Of Club Address

Speaking on Canada's income tax system, Francis G. Winspear, chartered accountant, talking to the Kiwanis Club at the Macdonald hotel Monday, said the various interpretations of the clauses of the act were not only confusing, but alarming.

Speaking on "Democracy and Income Tax," he said the minister of national revenue was an extremely important individual vested with almost authoritarian power as to finance in democratic Canada.

He pointed out that because of the wide powers of the ministers that after 25 years of administration of the act only 11 income tax cases were heard before the exchequer court which was set up to adjudicate between the rights of citizens and the crown.

The speaker outlined the tax system in Britain and the United States. In the latter country a citizen may appear before a board of tax appeals which publishes rulings.

In Canada there are no interpretive rules issuedt by the income tax department, he said. "So the department issues interpretivel rulings based on each separate taxpeyar's circumstances as it may arise, and the taxpayer has no guarantee that the act is being interpreted in his case on a basis similar to that adopted for similar taxpayers in like circumstances.

"Democracy is a system of check and balance. In income taxation the balance seems to be working splendidly, but the check seems to be missing."

LIBERATED.—Flt. Sgt. Robert Dixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dixon of 10420 145 street, who has arrived safely in England after being freed from a Nazi prisoner of war camp May 10. He enlisted in July, 1941, and went overseas in 1943. He was born in Saskatchewan and attended school in Edmonton.

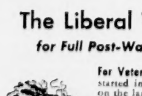
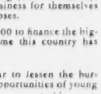
for Full Post-War Employment . . .



For Veterans—$750,000,000 to get them started in good paying jobs in industry, on the land or in business for themselves as each of them chooses.

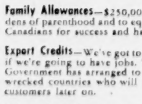
Housing—$400,000,000 to finance the biggest building scheme this country has ever known.

Family Allowances—$250,000,000 a year to lessen the burdens of parenthood and to equalize the opportunities of young Canadians for success and happiness.



Export Credits—We've got to have exports if we're going to have jobs. Your Liberal Government has arranged to finance warwrecked countries who will be our good customers later on.

Industrial Development Bank—Your Liberal Government has set up machinery to help enterprising Canadians develop new business.



Farm Loans—One man in three in Canada works on the farm. To help them get better equipment, your Liberal Government has arranged that they can borrow the money they need for better working and living conditions.

Floor Prices—The Liberal Government's policy is that when farmers and fishermen prosper, so do other Canadians. It has therefore taken action to put a floor under the prices of farm and fishery products.

Reduction of Taxes—Your Liberal Government believes in jobs first. To this end, taxes will come down to free spending power.

* * * *

These are just some of many steps in your Liberal Government's Working Plan to ensure full employment after the war. In addition it has stimulated tremendous private savings in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. It has put through Unemployment Insurance. It has set up a special Department of Reconstruction staffed by experts. Its policies are directed to the same end—a "high and stable level of employment and income"—and each contributes to the success of the others. The Liberal Party offers you a complete and well co-ordinated working plan!

JOBS!

Jobs with bright futures for the young men and women coming out of the Armed Services with the best part of their lives before them! Jobs for all! Jobs with big prospects and good, reliable money that will keep its buying power! After all the hard work, sacrifice and self-discipline which has brought us through the war, the people of this country have earned a brighter future in a better, juster, grander Canada than we have ever known!

LOOK how much Canadians have accomplished, here on the home front, even without the energy and initiative of all the vigorous young people now in uniform, and their zest for daring! What is there Canada can't do with them back on the home team? Why, with their help, we Canadians are headed full speed for the greatest period in our history!

THE all-important question today is the civilian staff-work and leadership which we call "government." The Liberals have a working plan. It's big and bold! Parts of it are outlined for your judgment in the left-hand column. It has been designed with the aid of the keenest minds in every phase of industry, agriculture, labour and learning. The plan will work. In fact it is already bringing results. It will continue to do so! The Liberals can tell you this with confidence because they have had successful experience in operating nation-wide plans.

VOTE for your Liberal candidate. Make sure the team which made this plan for full employment shall see it through—and win the peace!

RCAF to Announce Pacific Bonuses

OTTAWA, May 22.—(CP)—It was reliably learned last night that the RCAF will announce within the next few days a Pacific campaign pay bonus of about $10 monthly for airmen, an amount similar to the bonus announced yesterday for the 60-ship Canadian Pacific fleet, and Saturday pay bills for airmen in the 30,000 Canadian Far East force.

—V—

LONDON, May 22.—(Reuters)—The last traces of the notorious Belsen camp near Weimar, Germany, were burned in a ceremony attended by forces of the world's radio reported last night. For some days now areas of the camp have been gradually burned, in an attempt to check the spread of disease, the radio added. In its place a monument is to be raised.

Berlin Occupation Plans Are Delayed

RIJSSEN, Holland, May 22 — (CP)—Plans for the Allied occupation of Berlin have hit a snag and it appeared last night the 1st Canadian Army's "Bonifide Brigade" will not be going to the German capital as planned.

No one knows what caused the hitch in plans to send this token occupation force to Berlin for a month but the whole situation now is uncertain. Possibly the city is in such bad shape that plans to accommodate troops of the Western Allies are not feasible.

A reported switch in plans which would make Leipzig headquarters of the Allied control commission instead of Berlin may have had something to do with it.

The Canadian Brigade is still standing by and likely is the most disappointed Canadians in Europe if they don't go. The chosen representative units are looking smarter these days in new battle dress and scrubbed webbing than at any time since the West Front campaign started.

Premier Captured

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, May 22—(AP)—Modest recoveries were well distributed in today's stock market although many leaders continued to suffer from the lack of sound bids. The ticker tape frequently loitered from the start and trends were cloudy near the close. Transfers approximated 1,000,000 shares, one of the smallest aggregates for a full session in the last month.

Local Produce

BUTTER PRICES

No. 1, 34½; No. 2, 32½; No. 3, 30½.

CREAM PRICES

Prices for cream delivered to Edmonton creameries: Special grade, 45; No. 1, 44; No. 2, 38; off grade, 33.

All prices include government bonus of 10c to farmers.

EGG PRICES

Dealers now paying to country shippers: A large, 29; A medium, 27; A pullet, 21; grade B, 24; grade C, 18-19.

Wholesale to retail: A large, 36-37; A medium, 34-35; A pullet, 28-29; B, 30-31; grade C, 26-27.

Retail to consumers: A large, 43-44; A medium, 41-42; A pullet, 35-36; grade B, 37-38; grade C, 31-32.

Egg receipts for this market are estimated as being about 3 per cent. less than the previous week, although they will be shown as 10 per cent. less, because the holiday last week resulted in a considerable backlog of ungraded eggs in most stations. Quality of arrivals shows a further deterioration with advance toward summer conditions. Prices remain firm as quoted with backlog of surplus stocks going to the Special Products Board in deliveries as follows: Seven carlots oil-dipped and placed in storage for export in the fall, 13 carlots delivered for immediate drying, three carlots for immediate breaking for freezing and two carlots placed in shorthold. In addition to this one carlot of grade C rolled to Manitoba. Shipments to Northern Projects and the Pacific bases were on a lighter basis than the previous week.

POULTRY PRICES

The poultry market continues quiet although receipts of fowl showed a slight increase over the previous week. Receipts of broilers are still on a light basis, and are insufficient to meet demand. Prices for all classes of poultry remain unchanged, and the market is reported as very firm. One carlot of frozen turkeys rolled to Montreal.

HATCHERY OUTLOOK

This week's hatchery outlook report is based on reports from 15 hatcheries with total setting capacity of 1,458,731 eggs, and they report 3,177,734 eggs set since start of season, with total of 1,961,309 chicks hatched to date. Hatchability for the past week averaged 66.5 per cent.

All hatcheries are now tapering off on settings and there appears to have been a very marked reduction in demand for Leghorns, with a swing in preference for heavier breeds, especially New Hampshires. Sale of cockerel chicks has been very satisfactory for the past week, following the trend of the past several weeks.

A survey of chicks gassed to date is given as follows.

From start of season to this date:
Light breed 50,911
Heavy breed 52,149
Total 103,060

This compares with a total of 43,800 gassed during the entire season of 1944.

Wheat Is Bought For Relief Needs

WINNIPEG, May 22—(CP)—Export wheat business was back in the trading picture today on the Winnipeg grain exchange with an estimated 600,000 bushels being taken for relief purposes in Europe.

Business also was reported in cash coarse grains where 500,000 bushels of oats were taken by the United Kingdom and 500,000 bushels of rye for shipment to the United States.

Flurries of buying and selling hit the rye futures pit where trading was thin. Losses of more than two cents were scored in deferred options early, but recoveries were made when Chicago buying found offerings light.

Closing values were ¾ cent a bushel higher with ⅜ cent lower with May $1.56¾, July $1.51½, October $1.37⅝ and December $1.33½-⅝.
